A historical marker on Amite Co, MS hiway:

"John H. Nunnery. Across the road is site of home built by John H. Nunnery, early settler of Amite County. He had eight sons in Civil War, one in Sp.\Am. War. New Zion Baptist Church was organized here, Oct., 4, 1881."

All of the following abstracted from the Nunnery Book by Hollis F. Nunnery

John H. Nunnery and his first wife appear to have gone to Alabama to live when they first married. Their sons, Henry, Joseph, and John, are listed in the 1850 Census of Amite County as having been born in Alabama.

When John H. Nunnery returned from Alabama to Mississippi, he settled in the neighborhood where later New Zion Baptist Church was organized. His old residence is still standing, although in poor condition. His sons settled in the same area. As time went on this section became known as "Nunnery Town". A postoffice was established and named Nunnery.

When John H. Nunnery died in 1885 he was assessed with 600 acres of land in three adjoining sections. It has not been traced as to how much land he owned during his prime years.

John H. Nunnery and his wife, Elizabeth Holloway, had ten sons and one daughter. The daughter died as a young woman and not much is known of her. In the cemetery near New Zion Church, formerly known as the Nunnery Cemetery, there is a broken tombstone or marker with the first name off, but Nunnery, born November 1, 1840; died November 2, 1858. It is thought this marks the grave of the daughter, Jane.

The names of the sons: Henry, Joseph, John, Reuben, David, Samuel, William J., George, Richard, and Zachariah E. Nunnery. Eight sons were in the Civil War. Joseph was on his way home on furlough when he died at Port Gibson. He was brought home to be buried. William J. Nunnery was a Lieutenant, and killed in the Battle of Atlanta, GA. Reuben was wounded in the Battle of Stones River, Murfreesboro, TN. George was captured and held as a prisoner of war for 18 months in Rock Island prison, Rock Island, Illinois. When the war was over and he was released, he walked from there all the way home.

John H. Nunnery married (2) Eliza Annie Hughey August 24, 1859 in Amite County, Mississippi. She was the daughter of James Hughey and wife Susann Wilson Hughey. She was born March 30, 1836, died October 30, 1888 and is buried in the Nunnery Cemetery. They had the following children: Napoleon B., James A., Griffin, W.O., Susie, T.J., and Elizabeth who was known as Bettie. John H. Nunnery and his two wives had eighteen children in all.

The Nunnerys were among the most thrifty, energetic, honest, hard-working people to settle in Amite County. We, of this generation, cannot perceive the thrift and energy that abounded in their generation. They worked early and late and late and early as some say. They were fond of good horses and mules and kept the best stock in the country. It has never been said that anyone ever saw one of these oldtimers with a poor horse or mule. Their mules, horses, buggies and wagons were of the best.

As neighbors, they could not be surpassed. Nothing was too good for their fellowmen. The Nunnery women were equal to the men in every respect, with an added touch of beauty, which the men did not always have. These characteristics are still to be seen in the descendents of John H. Nunnery and Elizabeth Holloway Nunnery and Eliza Annie Hughey Nunnery. These Nunnerys were prosperous and good providers. New Zion Baptist Church is a memorial to them.

But alas, Time changes things. "Nunnery Town" is no more as it was known in days gone by. The strong church and good neighborhood built up by John H. Nunnery and his sons is still carried on by his descendents and others who have come in by marriage and otherwise. They carry on while the dear old ancestors sleep the peaceful sleep of the faithful.

"Whenever there was sickness in the neighborhood, the neighbors took turns sitting up at night to help. The next night EUGENE CAIN stayed with John rather than go some distance to his home. Eugene slept with John and it was a cold night. Uncle John got hold of the cover and gave it a twist, tucking it securely around him. Gene retaliated and yanked it back again and John fell out of bed onto the floor. Such cussing!"

"Uncle John lived by himself where Homer Shurley used to live; had a farm and a garden, and raised chickens; also had a peach orchard just beginning to bear. It was enclosed by a stake and rider fence, ten feet high. One day Jess slipped into the orchard and was taking some of the choicest fruit when Uncle John heard him. Jess never could get far enough ahead of John to climb the fence and John let him have it." --- John H. Parker

I have photocopies of the microfilmed originals of Reuben's Confederate Service Records. The 24 year old Reuben originally joined Capt. Sam J.W. Nix's Company, (Liberty Guards), Mississippi Volunteers on April 29, 1861. This company later became Company E, 22d Regiment Mississippi Infantry.

However, on September 28, 1861, he switched to Capt. B.F. John's Company, (Amite Rifles), 7th Regiment Mississippi Volunteers. This company later became Company C, 7th Regiment Mississippi Infantry.

On June 30, 1862, he was promoted from Private to Corporal. Reuben was wounded "in charge 300 yards in front of breast works and left in the hands of the enemy" at the Battle of Stones River, Murfreesboro, TN on Dec 31, 1862; sent to No. 7 Union General Hospital, Louisville, KY on February 15 1863; then sent as a Prisoner of War to Camp Morton, IN on February 25, 1863.

He appeared on a list of Prisoners of War dated April 12, 1863, of "Five Hundred and ten enlisted men, Confederate Prisoners of War and one dead body--and three women" delivered to City Point, VA by Lt. Col. C.C. Matson, 71st Indiana Volunteers, U.S.A. He was back at his unit "in quarters sick," by the end of April, 1863. On September 8, 1863, he was reduced in rank to Private, and was assigned extra duty as an ambulance driver. In January of 1864, he re-enlisted "for the War," and continued his extra duty as an ambulance driver.

Battle of Stones River (also known as Battle at Murfreesboro)

Location: Rutherford County, TN

Campaign: Stones River Campaign (1862-63)

Date(s): December 31, 1862-January 2, 1863

Principal Commanders: Maj. Gen. William S. Rosecrans [US]; Gen. Braxton Bragg [CS]

Forces Engaged: Army of the Cumberland [US]; Army of Tennessee [CS]

Estimated Casualties: 23,515 total (US 13,249; CS 10,266)

Description: After Gen. Braxton Bragg's defeat at Perryville, Kentucky, October 8, 1862, he and his Confederate Army of the Mississippi retreated, reorganized, and were redesignated as the Army of Tennessee. They then advanced to Murfreesboro, Tennessee, and prepared to go into winter quarters.

Maj. Gen. William S. Rosecrans's Union Army of the Cumberland followed Bragg from Kentucky to Nashville. Rosecrans left Nashville on December 26, with about 45,000 men, to defeat Bragg's army. He found Bragg's army on December 29 and went into camp that night, within hearing distance of the Rebels.

At dawn on the 31st, Bragg's men attacked the Union right flank. The Confederates had driven the Union line back to the Nashville Pike by 10:00 am but there it held. Union reinforcements arrived from Rosecrans's left in the late forenoon to bolster the stand and before fighting stopped that day, the Federals had established a new, strong line.

On New Years Day, both armies marked time. Bragg surmised that Rosecrans would now withdraw, but the next morning he was still in position. In late afternoon, Bragg hurled a division at a Union division that, on January 1, had crossed Stones River and had taken up a strong position on the bluff east of the river. The Confederates drove most of the Federals back across McFadden's Ford, but with the assistance of artillery, the Federals repulsed the attack, compelling the Rebels to retire to their original position.

Bragg left the field on the January 4-5, retreating to Shelbyville and Tullahoma, Tennessee. Rosecrans did not pursue, but as the Confederates retired, he claimed the victory. Stones River boosted Union morale. The Confederates had been thrown back in the east, west, and in the Trans-Mississippi.

Result: Union victory

[Amos Nunnery.FTW]

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 12, Ed. 1, Tree #2937, Date of Import: Apr 27, 1998]

Zachariah Nunnery built his home not far from his father's homestead. In addition to running his farm, he operated a little country store. In his store was located the postoffice which was established March 9, 1888 and discontinued November 20, 1903, known as Nunnerytown. He gave four acres of land for church and school purposes on which were built New Zion Baptist Church and Nunnery School, in the early 1880's. A large church was built at a cost of $800. Many years later it was torn down and a new modern building erected on the same site. The Nunnery schoolhouse has long since passed away.

The following poem, in the possession of Mr. & Mrs. Reece Nunnery, is framed and inscribed: "Purchased by Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Nunnery in September, 1902."

"Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er;
On the borderland we left them,
Soon to meet and part no more.
When we leave this world of changes
When we leave this world of care,
We shall find our missing loved ones,
In our Father's mansion fair."

According to the 1900 census, Griffin and his family were living in Amite County, Mississippi.

- xix. Thomas Jefferson Nunnery^{1, 7} was born about 1869 in Amite County, Mississippi.^{1, 7} He died after 1898.^{1, 7}

Notes for Thomas Jefferson Nunnery:

[Amos Nunnery.FTW]

[Brøderbund WFT Vol. 12, Ed. 1, Tree #2937, Date of Import: Apr 27, 1998]

There is very little of record about this son and no one now living remembers him. W.O., Susie, and Thomas J. were listed in the succession papers as minors at the time of their fathers death in 1885. Susie and Thomas J. were still listed as minors at the time of their mothers death in 1888.

In the list of Spanish American War Soldiers from Amite County, Mississippi, is : NUNNERY, Thos. J., Rosetta, Mississippi, 2nd Regt. Miss. Vol. (Co. D), Joined May 5, 1898, mustered out December 20, 1898.

It is thought he may have been living at this time with his older brothers, Napoleon and James, who each operated merchantile businesses in Rosetta at about that time.

He may have died in the yellow fever epidemic of 1905 as did his brother, Napoleon, and his brother's little daughter, Verna. He either died at an early age or wandered off to another part of the country and has not been heard from again.

I have photocopies of the microfilmed originals of Reuben's Confederate Service Records.

The 24 year old Reuben originally joined Capt. Sam J.W. Nix's Company, (Liberty Guards), Mississippi Volunteers on April 29, 1861. This company later became Company E, 22d Regiment Mississippi Infantry.

However, on September 28, 1861, he switched to Capt. B.F. John's Company, (Amite Rifles), 7th Regiment Mississippi Volunteers. This company later became Company C, 7th Regiment Mississippi Infantry.

On June 30, 1862, he was promoted from Private to Corporal. Reuben was wounded "in charge 300 yards in front of breast works and left in the hands of the enemy" at the Battle of Stones River, Murfreesboro, TN on Dec 31, 1862; sent to No. 7 Union General Hospital, Louisville, KY on February 15 1863; then sent as a Prisoner of War to Camp Morton, IN on February 25, 1863.

He appeared on a list of Prisoners of War dated April 12, 1863, of "Five Hundred and ten enlisted men, Confederate Prisoners of War and one dead body--and three women" delivered to City Point, VA by Lt. Col. C.C. Matson, 71st Indiana Volunteers, U.S.A. He was back at his unit "in quarters sick," by the end of April, 1863. On September 8, 1863, he was reduced in rank to Private, and was assigned extra duty as an ambulance driver. In January of 1864, he re-enlisted "for the War," and continued his extra duty as an ambulance driver.

Battle of Stones River (also known as Battle at Murfreesboro)

Location: Rutherford County, TN

Campaign: Stones River Campaign (1862-63)

Date(s): December 31, 1862-January 2, 1863

Principal Commanders: Maj. Gen. William S. Rosecrans [US]; Gen. Braxton Bragg [CS]

Forces Engaged: Army of the Cumberland [US]; Army of Tennessee [CS]

Estimated Casualties: 23,515 total (US 13,249; CS 10,266)

Description: After Gen. Braxton Bragg's defeat at Perryville, Kentucky, October 8, 1862, he and his Confederate Army of the Mississippi retreated, reorganized, and were redesignated as the Army of Tennessee. They then advanced to Murfreesboro, Tennessee, and prepared to go into winter quarters. Maj. Gen. William S. Rosecrans's Union Army of the Cumberland followed Bragg from Kentucky to Nashville. Rosecrans left Nashville on December 26, with about 45,000 men, to defeat Bragg's army. He found Bragg's army on December 29 and went into camp that night, within hearing distance of the Rebels.

At dawn on the 31st, Bragg's men attacked the Union right flank. The Confederates had driven the Union line back to the Nashville Pike by 10:00 am but there it held. Union reinforcements arrived from Rosecrans's left in the late forenoon to bolster the stand and before fighting stopped that day, the Federals had established a new, strong line.

On New Years Day, both armies marked time. Bragg surmised that Rosecrans would now withdraw, but the next morning he was still in position. In late afternoon, Bragg hurled a division at a Union division that, on January 1, had crossed Stones River and had taken up a strong position on the bluff east of the river. The Confederates drove most of the Federals back across McFadden's Ford, but with the assistance of artillery, the Federals repulsed the attack, compelling the Rebels to retire to their original position.

Bragg left the field on the January 4-5, retreating to Shelbyville and Tullahoma, Tennessee. Rosecrans did not pursue, but as the Confederates retired, he claimed the victory. Stones River boosted Union morale. The Confederates had been thrown back in the east, west, and in the Trans-Mississippi.

Result: Union victory

Elizabeth Jane Harvey's mother Nancy Cain Harvey died in 1848, when Elizabeth was 2. Elizabeth's father Thomas Kennon Harvey died in 1852, when she was 6. Family history is that Elizabeth was raised in a convent because her parents died when she was young.

(From the notes of Patricia Ezell-Cain Family researcher) <PatEzell@postoffice.worldnet.att.net>

On the 1870 Amite Co, MS Census we find a 15 yr old Alice FORD. She was a 1st cousin to Elizabeth Harvey Nunnery. Here's how:

Elizabeth Jane Harvey Nunnery was a daughter of Nancy Cain, who was sister to Rebecca Ann Cain who married Bartlett Ford. Rebecca Ann Cain and Bartlett had 5 children, one of whom was Alice, b.1856. Alice's father, Bartlett Ford died in Aug. 1858 when Alice was 2. Alice's mother, Rebecca Ann Cain (Ford) remarried in March 1859 to Paschal SEALE (who by the way had already been married once before). Alice's mother, Rebecca Ann Cain (SEALE) dies Aug 1860! (Alice is only 4!!) Shortly thereafter, her new stepfather, Paschal Seale remarries for the 3rd time ... this time to Mary Emma Ballace (Sep.1860) But meanwhile, he has been named guardian of the minor heirs of Bartlett Ford (and of course, Rebecca's children)... remember there were 5) HE has control of the Bartlett Ford property AND SELLS it to James M. Jones on 1 July 1861. He's also administrator of Rebecca's estate. (Gee... I wonder if he EVEN had the FORD children in his house when he sold their property!) Then in Oct 1861, Pascal Seale marries AGAIN...this time to Henrietta McKey. (don't know what happened to Emma Balance) Then on 5 Aug 1862 Pascal Seale married for the 5th time... this time to Martha A. Morgan! Finally on 26 Jul 1869. He marries for I guess the last time... to Almeda Hammock.... She apparently outlived him!

Now I don't want to "sound" suspicious, but I do wonder how much property he got off of all of these wives... and I wonder HOW they all died?

"Purchased by Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Nunnery in September, 1902."

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er;
On the borderland we left them,
Soon to meet and part no more.
When we leave this world of changes
When we leave this world of care,
We shall find our missing loved ones,
In our Father's mansion fair."

Notes for Janet Sue Miller:

Janet Falkmann 62, Greenwood, passed away unexpectedly Nov. 3, 2016. Born July 18, 1954 in Milwaukee to the late Orville Jack and Josephine (Posa) Miller, Janet was a loyal member of Emmanuel Church of Greenwood and a devoted servant for Christ. A singer, writer, and poet, she cherished time with her family and friends. She enjoyed writing poems of encouragement, one for nearly every sermon she heard. Her family will miss her heart of gold; all the notes of love and reminders she left for them almost every day; and longs for the day they meet again.

Survivors include her husband of 36 years, Ronald Alan; children, Nathaniel David Falkmann (Susanna), Jeremiah Lukas Falkmann, Ronald Jeffrey Falkmann; grandson, Sawyer; sister, Carolyn Wheeler (Jim) and Diane Gaertner (Otto).

Visitation, the funeral, and burial will all be located at G.H. Herrmann Greenwood Funeral Home at The Gardens at Olive Branch, 1605 S. State Road 135, Greenwood, IN Visitation will be Wednesday, Nov. 9 from 4 - 8 p.m.

The funeral will be the following day, Thursday, Nov. 10 at 11:30 a.m., with burial immediately following at The Gardens at Olive Branch Cemetery.
