Indiana Evening Gazette (August 20, 1917)

Samuel M. Palmer.

Samuel M. Palmer, one of the most respected officials of Burrell township for many years, died at this home in Josephine, Sunday night at 11 o'clock. The funeral services will be conducted at this late home on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock and interment will be made in the Barr cemetery.

Samuel M. Palmer was a son of David and Jane Bell Palmer and was born March 23, 1839. After working with his father until he reached manhood, he began farming for himself, buying a farm of 101 acres in West Wheatfield township. At last, when his father needed his care, he sold the place and returned to the home of his boyhood. There he remained following general agricultural pursuits until 1891, when he sold out and moved to Blacklick, engaging in the mercantile business. After two years in the that line, however, he had to give it up on account of his health, and he removed to what is now the town of Josephine, where he bought the little farm which he had made his home.

Samuel M. Palmer.

Samuel M. Palmer, one of the most respected officials of Burrell township for many years, died at this home in Josephine, Sunday night at 11 o'clock. The funeral services will be conducted at this late home on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock and interment will be made in the Barr cemetery.

Samuel M. Palmer was a son of David and Jane Bell Palmer and was born March 23, 1839. After working with his father until he reached manhood, he began farming for himself, buying a farm of 101 acres in West Wheatfield township. At last, when his father needed his care, he sold the place and returned to the home of his boyhood. There he remained following general agricultural pursuits until 1891, when he sold out and moved to Blacklick, engaging in the mercantile business. After two years in the that line, however, he had to give it up on account of his health, and he removed to what is how the town of Josephine, where he bought the little farm which he had made his home.

He served a number of years as supervisor and assessor of his native township. He was also a member of the election board. In 1897, he was elected justice of the peace of Burrell township and that office for five years during which time there was not a single appeal from one of his decisions. He had always been a Democrat and a staunch supporter of the principles of his party; though he supported the Union during the Civil War. In August 1864, he enlisted in Company H, 211th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, under Capt. V. B. Harding and Col. C. L. Dodds. He continued in active service until the close of the war and participated in the grand review in Washington. He was a member of Thomas Jenkins Post, G. A. R., of Blacklick. In religion he had been associated with The Presbyterian Church.

In 1860 Mr. Palmer married Jane Campbell, daughter of Robert Campbell of Homer City. Mrs. Palmer died in 1872. To this marriage were born five children: Leslie H., of Alberta, Canada; Clement of Nevada Mountains, Cal.; Andrew M. of Johnstown; Erastus A. of Blairsville; and Mrs. W. J. Kunkle of Homer City. Mr. Palmer's second marriage was to Maria Campbell whom he leaves together with one Davis A. Palmer grew to manhood on the home farm in Burrell Township, and had the educational privileges afforded by the local public schools. He continued to work with his father on the homestead place until he reached the age of thirty-two, at which time he acquired an interest in the lumber business, forming a partnership with S. A. Kunkle, under the firm name of Palmer & Kunkle. They were engaged in the manufacture of lumber and railroad ties, and much of their product was disposed of directly to the railway companies. In 1904 Mr. Palmer established himself as a merchant in the town of Blacklick, in Burrell Township, erecting the frame building in which he has carried on his furniture and undertaking business, which has attained large proportions. Mr. Palmer has taken his son Lyman D. Palmer into partnership with him, under the name of D. A. Palmer & Son, and through their enterprise and progressive methods they have become widely known over a large territory. They have acquired an extensive trade as a result of their personal integrity no less than their thoroughly satisfactory dealings with their customers showing their appreciation to their patrons, by making their business relations pleasant and mutually agreeable.

Mr. Palmer has interested himself in local affairs, particularly the problem of public education, and he has filled the office of school director of Burrell Township, for three terms, doing effective work in that capacity. He has been a notary public for the last thirteen years. He is broad-minded and has advanced views on most questions. In politics he is a sincere Socialist, one of the foremost men of that party in this portion of the State, and fearless in upholding the principles of socialism as taught by the founders of the party.

Thomas Clair Milliron was buried in Pennsylvania.

Notes for Thomas Clair Milliron:

Not sure if Tom was born in Blairsville or Cokeville. His birth certificate says Blairsville, but he may have obtained that later in life when he needed identification.

When his father insisted he quit school at about age 12 to work in the mines, Tom was helped by an "Uncle Jimmy Dick," who got him a start in railroad engineering. That uncle may have been James A. Dick of Morrellville, Cambria County.

Thomas Clair was a train engineer in the Vandergrift mill, and my grandmother lived in Vandergrift, where they met. I'm not sure where he lived at the time. He was one of the few people of his age who owned a car, so he was pretty mobile, he could have lived anywhere within a 25-mile or so radius. He left home and lived with Jimmy Dick's family from about 1910 until he married in 1925. As you might recall, his "Uncle Jimmy Dick" saved him from the mines and helped him get established as a train man. (From T. Chapman)

Draft registration, 1918, registered at PO Box in Apollo. Oral history relates that he was called for active duty, and while at the train station in Pittsburgh waiting to be transferred to boot camp, the word came that the war was over. There were large number of recruits there, and none of them had any transportation. So an officer in charge commandeered a truck and drove all over Western PA dropping off the boys at their homes.

Tom and Mildred eloped in West Virginia. They started out in Vandergrift, and then Apollo, before settling in rural "Orchard Hills." During that time they also tried to relocate to Colorado during the Depression. There they briefly lived with Tom's sister Minerva and her husband on a ranch, but returned after a short while to Apollo. Later they settled in "Orchard Hills" just northeast of Apollo, where they lived about 35 years until 1970. Then they retired in St. Petersburg, Florida, and lived in a mobile home park. They moved to Orange, California in 1974, living near the family of daughter Elizabeth.

According to the 1930 Census, Thomas and his family were living in Vandergrift, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Alfred Bruce Clawson:

The one story that I like to use about my grandpap Clawson is that he was disabled by two different work related accidents. In one, he lost three fingers on his right hand in 1915 (occurred before 1918 according to a draft registration card) and he had only his thumb and pointer finger. He had the other arm amputated above the elbow in another work related accident when his shirt sleeve got caught in some machinery in 1938. When he was in his sixties and seventies, he was the manager at a Western Auto store in Seward, Pennsylvania. One day, a young guy came in and pulled a gun on him and tried to rob him. I guess he figured he would be an easy prey since he was old and disabled. My grandfather reached

under the counter and pulled out the gun (A 38, I believe) that he always had at the store with him and told the guy that if he didn't leave the store in five seconds that he was going to shoot him. This guy didn't expect this and he hightailed out the store without ever trying to take my grandfather on. They caught this guy later on. My grandfather could be downright stern when he needed to be but he was still a fun person to be around. Also with his disabilities, he drove a standard shift automobile most of his life. (Told by Keith Clawson)

As told by Bruce A. Clawson, when A. Bruce Clawson was growing up, he lived with his parents near the Pennsylvania Railroad main tracks near Bolivar. When walking the tracks such as to go into Bolivar, he would carry a loaded pistol. This was due to number of hobos who would ride the freight trains that passed through. The hobos were known to attack and sometimes kill people that they would encounter along the tracks.

Another story told by Bruce A. was that A. Bruce and his brother Bobby (Ralph Davis Clawson) were going through Oak Grove (north of Ligonier) in an automobile one time. A. Bruce was driving the automobile. Someone ran from the side of the road and hopped on the running boards of the automobile. A. Bruce told his brother to get the man off the car and Bobby pushed him off the car. Bobby then proceeded to fire a few shots from a pistol at this person's feet to make sure he ran away and left them alone.

According to the 1930 census, Bruce and his family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

245. Thomas Clair⁷ Milliron (Amanda Elizabeth⁶ Palmer, Peter⁵ Palmer, John⁴ Palmer, Peter³ Palmer, Henry Michael² Palmer Sr., Hans Michael¹ Balmer)^{22, 360} was born on Oct 15, 1898 in Blairsville, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.²² He died on Mar 23, 1976 in Santa Ana, Orange County, California.²² He married Mildred Grace Colwell on Apr 11, 1925 in Beech Bottom, Brooke County, West Virginia. She was born on Dec 01, 1906 in Freeport, Armstrong County, Pennsylvania. She died on Dec 05, 2000 in Santa Ana, Orange County, California.

Thomas Clair Milliron was buried in Pennsylvania.

Notes for Thomas Clair Milliron:

Not sure if Tom was born in Blairsville or Cokeville. His birth certificate says Blairsville, but he may have obtained that later in life when he needed identification.

When his father insisted he quit school at about age 12 to work in themines, Tom was helped by an "Uncle Jimmy Dick," who got him a start in railroad engineering. That uncle may have been James A. Dick of Morrellville, Cambria County.

Thomas Clair was a train engineer in the Vandergrift mill, and my grandmother lived in Vandergrift, where they met. I'm not sure where he lived at the time. He was one of the few people of his age who owned a car, so he was pretty mobile, he could have lived anywhere within a 25-mile or so radius. He left home and lived with Jimmy Dick's family from about 1910 until he married in 1925. As you might recall, his "Uncle Jimmy Dick" saved him from the mines and helped him get established as a train man. (From T. Chapman)

Draft registration, 1918, registered at PO Box in Apollo. Oral history relates that he was called for active duty, and while at the train station in Pittsburgh waiting to be transferred to boot camp, the word came that the war was over. There were large number of recruits there, and none of them had any transportation. So an officer in charge commandeered a truck and drove all over Western PA dropping off the boys at their homes.

Tom and Mildred eloped in West Virginia. They started out in Vandergrift, and then Apollo, before settling in rural "Orchard Hills." During that time they also tried to relocate to Colorado during the Depression. There they briefly lived with Tom's sister Minerva and her husband on a ranch, but returned after a short while to Apollo. Later they settled in "Orchard Hills" just northeast of Apollo, where they lived about 35 years until 1970. Then they retired in St. Petersburg, Florida, and lived in a mobile home park. They moved to Orange, California in 1974, living near the family of daughter Elizabeth.

According to the 1930 Census, Thomas and his family were living in Vandergrift, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

It is with the heaviest of hearts that we pass on the word of our Father's passing on Sunday, August 7th, 2022, in Latrobe Area Hospital, surrounded by family at the young age of 92.

Walter H. Lute, Sr (or Jack as he was known to so many), was born on October 20, 1929 in Latrobe to the late George and Eliza Jane (Small) Lute. He was also the son-in-law to the late Paul and Elizabeth Balazek.

Prior to going to work for West Penn Power, he worked for Adam Eidemiller, Inc. and was drafted into the US Army where he spent much of his time as an aircraft mechanic.

Our Dad will be well remembered for his story telling. Sitting on his breezeway and telling us stories about his life are some of the best times and memories that we will cherish forever.

386. Alfred Bruce⁷ Clawson (Minnie Jane⁶ Lute, Nancy Jane⁵ Palmer, David Jenkins⁴ Palmer Jr., David Jenkins³ Palmer Sr., Henry Michael² Palmer Sr., Hans Michael¹ Balmer)^{76, 676, 1158, 1163-1171} was born on Jan 04, 1899 in India, West Wheatfield Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.^{1163-1164, 1168-1170} He died on Nov 14, 1982 in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.¹¹⁶⁹ He married Florence Hannah Miller, daughter of Matthew Anderson Miller and Gertrude Pittman, on Jan 28, 1920.¹¹⁷² She was born on Aug 12, 1899 in Fairfield Township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.¹¹⁷³ She died on Aug 10, 1977 in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Alfred Bruce Clawson was buried in Armagh Cemetery, Armagh, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Alfred Bruce Clawson:

The one story that I like to use about my grandpap Clawson is that he was disabled by two different work related accidents. In one, he lost three fingers on his right hand in 1915 (occurred before 1918 according to a draft registration card) and he had only his thumb and pointer finger. He had the other arm amputated above the elbow in another work related accident when his shirt sleeve got caught in some machinery in 1938. When he was in his sixties and seventies, he was the manager at a Western Auto store in Seward, Pennsylvania. One day, a young guy came in and pulled a gun on him and tried to rob him. I guess he figured he would be an easy prey since he was old and disabled. My grandfather reached under the counter and pulled out the gun (A 38, I believe) that he always had at the store with him and told the guy that if he didn't leave the store in five seconds that he was going to shoot him. This guy didn't expect this and he hightailed out the store without ever trying to take my grandfather on. They caught this guy later on. My grandfather could be downright stern when he needed to be but he was still a fun person to be around. Also with his disabilities, he drove a standard shift automobile most of his life. (Told by Keith Clawson)

As told by Bruce A. Clawson, when A. Bruce Clawson was growing up, he lived with his parents near the Pennsylvania Railroad main tracks near Bolivar. When walking the tracks such as to go into Bolivar, he would carry a loaded pistol. This was due to number of hobos who would ride the freight trains that passed through. The hobos were known to attack and sometimes kill people that they would encounter along the tracks.

Another story told by Bruce A. was that A. Bruce and his brother Bobby (Ralph Davis Clawson) were going through Oak Grove (north of Ligonier) in an automobile one time. A. Bruce was driving the automobile. Someone ran from the side of the road and hopped on the running boards of the automobile. A. Bruce told his brother to get the man off the car and Bobby pushed him off the car. Bobby then proceeded to fire a few shots from a pistol at this person's feet to make sure he ran away and left them alone.

According to the 1930 census, Bruce and his family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Florence Hannah Miller was buried in Armagh Cemetery, Armagh, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Florence Hannah Miller:

Florence was called Nana by all of her grandchildren. She did not want to be called grandmother. She thought being called grandmother would make her feel old.

Notes for Michael M. Palmer:

In wake of suicide, soldier's family seeks answers

By JASON L. LEVAN, jlevan@indianagazette.net

Published: Tuesday, February 3, 2009 2:27 PM EST

Michael Palmer went away to serve two tours of duty in Iraq and came back a very different man. But just what changed in him and why will be questions that linger for many in his family after his death last week. Michael, who grew up in White Township, was 17 when he joined the Pennsylvania National Guard. In less than three years, he completed two tours in Iraq. He earned a Purple Heart during his first deployment. He was wounded by shrapnel and suffered a concussion when a Humvee he was in took an indirect hit from an improvised explosive device. Even after being injured, he volunteered to return to Iraq.

But last Wednesday night, whatever it was that haunted him became too much to bear. In the darkness, alone in a parked car, Michael Palmer shot himself while on duty as a security guard at the Homer City Generating Station, using the Glock 9 mm he had been issued for use on the job, according to Indiana County Coroner Michael Baker. Palmer was 23. Police say a coworker in the parking lot heard a gunshot, looked in the rearview mirror and saw what had transpired. Baker said an autopsy confirmed that Palmer died of a single self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head. "My brother was a hero," said Brian Palmer, 42, of Port Clinton, Ohio, who came home for his brother's services. "All I want is for him to be honored as the hero he was." And he will be. VFW Post 1989 in Indiana will accord him military honors during his funeral service and burial on Tuesday.

he said. "I thought he was a little more peaceful." A veteran of the Vietnam War, Everett Palmer says he could relate to what Michael was dealing with. "I know the trauma you go through. You just keep seeing things in your head." And that, evidently, is where most things stayed with Michael. Those who knew him will tell you he was a joker. "He loved to laugh. He was very quick-witted. He made us laugh, but I think sometimes he made himself laugh so he didn't cry," Brian Palmer said. Baker reported that coworkers at the power plant say Palmer did not appear to be upset that night. "He seemed to be having a normal evening," Baker said.

"I talked to him that day, and he seemed fine," his wife, Jennifer Smyers-Palmer, 23, said Sunday. Michael and Jennifer were married four years. But in that time, she said, their relationship changed drastically, and they grew apart.

Michael, a 2004 graduate of Indiana Area Senior High School, first went overseas with the Johnstown-based 28th Military Police Command from October 2005 to June 2006 and again from May 2007 to March 2008, Jennifer said. Early on, two of his friends were killed in action, and he witnessed one, she said. "He saw a lot of stuff - more than most of us could ever handle, I'll bet," Brian Palmer said. "The first tour was really draining on both of us," Smyers-Palmer said. "The war really took its toll on him. He wasn't the same person that I married." The couple would regularly go bowling, shoot pool - "I taught him everything he knew," Jennifer said - watch movies and play quirky songs on the guitar about other people's misfortunes. "If he had a song to sing, he'd sing it," though not well, she said, smiling.

But after his first tour, those things didn't interest Michael anymore. "He viewed everything so differently," Smyers-Palmer said. Eventually, they separated and filed for divorce, though it had not been finalized before Michael passed away. The couple was also trying to sell a house they bought together in Ernest in 2006. "He was my best friend. He was the love of my life, but we just knew it wouldn't work out," she said. Jennifer said she pushed for Michael to attend marriage counseling and asked him not to return to Iraq. "I told him it was the biggest mistake he could make."

"He was a phenomenal person, and he wanted to prosper at everything he did," said Michael's father, Donald Palmer Sr. "He is going to be sadly missed." Palmer Sr. knows loss. In his 65 years, he has now had to bury three sons and a wife. His first child, Charles Arthur, choked to death in a highchair in 1965. "I was downstairs to do wash, and I came back and I tried to revive him, but it was no use," Don said, tearing up. Another son, Bucky Adams, died in his crib in 1971. Don's wife, June, passed away from cancer in 2001, a day before Michael's 16th birthday. "I've been through a lot in my life," Palmer Sr. said.

In addition to his father, Michael leaves behind a daughter, 18-month-old Madison, who was born during Michael's second deployment. The military granted him a four-day leave so he could be there.

He is also survived by sisters Laura Piraino, of North Carolina; Lavone Warr, of Waynesburg; and brothers John Smith, of Shelocta; and Donald Palmer Jr., of Shelocta.

Though Michael strongly resisted counseling, Smyers-Palmer said she wishes the military was able to force soldiers to undergo therapy. The military "was aware he was having problems. He wasn't stable enough to go" back to Iraq, she said. "It kills their spirit."

While the military does not require veterans to participate in counseling, Master Sgt. Deb Wilkins said the military goes to great lengths to make sure soldiers know help is available. Returning soldiers go through a two-week "cooling-down period," where officers look for warning signs before they are discharged, Wilkins said. Then, six months after a tour of duty, soldiers must undergo another physical and mental screening. And they and their families are eligible for treatment through Veterans Affairs for two years. "They're not kicked to the wayside," she said. Wilkins, 37, was in command of Michael's platoon during his first tour. "When I got the call, I was actually surprised because we had other soldiers who were more at risk for that sort of thing. He's more of a jokester, and he made sure no one knew he was bothered that much. It never crossed my mind." Increasingly, though, addressing the rising suicide rate in the military is becoming a priority. Last year, the U.S. Army reported that at least 128 soldiers committed suicide, the highest level since the Vietnam War. "The military has been improving on what they do for vets," Wilkins said. Notes for James Richard Palmer:

James Palmer Obituary

James Richard Palmer, 69, of Indiana, passed away peacefully at home on Thursday, September 19, 2024. Born to William Palmer and Beulah Isenberg, Jim was one of 11 siblings in a large and loving family.

Jim dedicated 30 years of his life working for S.W. Jack and in the mines. Outside of work, he was happiest when he had his hands busy-whether working on cars, tinkering with just about anything, or enjoying outdoor activities like hunting. He also loved taking trips to the beach and the family camp. Some of his favorite moments were spent sitting on his porch with a cigarette and McDonald's coffee, or parked in the Walmart lot, people-watching. Above all, his greatest joy came from spending time with his large, often chaotic, but always loving family. Being surrounded by his grandkids and great-grandkids, whom he adored, was the highlight of his life.

Jim is survived by his beloved wife of 50 years, Rose (Mountain) Palmer; his children, Pam (Bill) Vojtek of Indiana, Steven (Leia) Palmer of Indiana, Brian "BJ" (Leanna) Palmer of North Carolina, and Jason Palmer of Indiana; as well as numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, and nephews. He was blessed with many grandchildren and great-grandchildren-so many that he often affectionately described them as "a fk ton"-and he loved them all dearly.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, William Jr., and sister, Alice.

Jim was known as the most loved "pain in the ass" anyone ever met. He never took life too seriously, often dropping his favorite word-"fk"-into conversations, and he didn't care much for making a fuss over anything. His straightforward, down-to-earth nature and his unapologetic sense of humor will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

Friends will be received on Sunday from 12 to 2 pm at the John A Lefdahl Funeral Home. Funeral service will immediately follow in the Lefdahl Chapel with Pastor Brandon Mountan and Leo Mountan, officiating.

Interment will follow in the Greenwood Cemetery.

It is with the heaviest of hearts that we pass on the word of our Father's passing on Sunday, August 7th, 2022, in Latrobe Area Hospital, surrounded by family at the young age of 92.

Walter H. Lute, Sr (or Jack as he was known to so many), was born on October 20, 1929 in Latrobe to the late George and Eliza Jane (Small) Lute. He was also the son-in-law to the late Paul and Elizabeth Balazek.

onto his youngest son. Prior to going to work for West Penn Power, he worked for Adam Eidemiller, Inc. and was drafted into the US Army where he spent much of his time as an aircraft mechanic.

Our Dad will be well remembered for his story telling. Sitting on his breezeway and telling us stories about his life are some of the best times and memories that we will cherish forever.

Walter was predeceased in death by his wife, Lucy P. (Balazek) Lute on November 30, 2019 and a grandson, Ryan J. Lute on December 23, 2017, his sisters Eleanor Ernest and Hazel Kirk and brothers, George, Charles, and David Lute.

She resided in Bolivar most of her life and was highly respected and known beyond the boundaries of the town. Carrie Deane was "famous" for her scrumptious home-made bread, rolls, cinnamon buns, cakes, pies, and more. All of her grandchildren and great grandchildren as well as many others are proud owners of her crocheted blankets. For many years, her Bolivar neighbors and friends canned beets, made garden special, and more in her well suited basement. She provided, over the years, donated baked goods to churches and elder care homes. Perhaps, though, she is best remembered as an extremely gracious, loving, kind, mother, and grandmother. Nothing was more important to Carrie Deane than her family, neighbors, and friends. In addition to her parents she was predeceased by her loving husband, William Z. Clawson who died in 2002 and these siblings: Isabell, Grace, Joseph, Patty, and Charlotte. She is survived by two sons, William (Betty) Clawson, Dennis (Carol) Clawson, a sister, Betty Graymus, a brother, Paul Hall, five grandchildren: Billie Sue (Dave) Early, Kimberly Clawson, Adam (Carolyn) Clawson, Stephanie (Mike) Zezzo and Suzanne (John) Dzvonick who all loved her and spent many days and nights learning how to cook and bake. She is also survived by these great-grandchildren: Daniel and Matthew Early, Ashley Victoriana, Breanna, Danielle, and Evan Clawson, Cole and Sophia Zezzo and Lydia and Lucas Dzvoncik, and numerous nieces and nephews. The family wishes to acknowledge the love and care provided by the Bolivar "family." Super special thanks goes to Pat Skavang and Katthy Griffith as well as Michael Robertson who were there every step of the way. Many, many other relatives, neighbors, and friends are also thanked for friendly visits, occasional personal care, and the delivery of delicious food. A huge thank you is to be given to Newhaven Court's highly skilled and caring staff and the nurses and staff from Bridges Hospice. A private graveside burial will take place at the Bolivar Westview Cemetery at the convenience of the family. A well deserved memorial service will be held at a later time and date to be announced. Notes for Michael M. Palmer:

In wake of suicide, soldier's family seeks answers

Michael Palmer went away to serve two tours of duty in Iraq and came back a very different man. But just what changed in him and why will be questions that linger for many in his family after his death last week. Michael, who grew up in White Township, was 17 when he joined the Pennsylvania National Guard. In less than three years, he completed two tours in Iraq. He earned a Purple Heart during his first deployment. He was wounded by shrapnel and suffered a concussion when a Humvee he was in took an indirect hit from an improvised explosive device. Even after being injured, he volunteered to return to Iraq.

But last Wednesday night, whatever it was that haunted him became too much to bear. In the darkness, alone in a parked car, Michael Palmer shot himself while on duty as a security guard at the Homer City Generating Station, using the Glock 9 mm he had been issued for use on the job, according to Indiana County Coroner Michael Baker. Palmer was 23. Police say a coworker in the parking lot heard a gunshot, looked in the rearview mirror and saw what had transpired. Baker said an autopsy confirmed that Palmer died of a single self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head. "My brother was a hero," said Brian Palmer, 42, of Port Clinton, Ohio, who came home for his brother's services. "All I want is for him to be honored as the hero he was." And he will be. VFW Post 1989 in Indiana will accord him military honors during his funeral service and burial on Tuesday.

A memorial service is planned for Feb. 8 at the Friends in Faith Baptist Church in Rayne Township, where Michael's uncle, Everett Palmer, is the pastor. He is planning to have a plaque made in Michael's honor to display at the church. The pastor reported that Michael asked him to pray with him just a couple weeks ago. "That was the last time I talked to him," he said. "I thought he was a little more peaceful." A veteran of the Vietnam War, Everett Palmer says he could relate to what Michael was dealing with. "I know the trauma you go through. You just keep seeing things in your head." And that, evidently, is where most things stayed with Michael. Those who knew him will tell you he was a joker. "He loved to laugh. He was very quick-witted. He made us laugh, but I think sometimes he made himself laugh so he didn't cry," Brian Palmer said. Baker reported that coworkers at the power plant say Palmer did not appear to be upset that night. "He seemed to be having a normal evening," Baker said.

"I talked to him that day, and he seemed fine," his wife, Jennifer Smyers-Palmer, 23, said Sunday. Michael and Jennifer were married four years. But in that time, she said, their relationship changed drastically, and they grew apart.

Michael, a 2004 graduate of Indiana Area Senior High School, first went overseas with the Johnstown-based 28th Military Police Command from October 2005 to June 2006 and again from May 2007 to March 2008, Jennifer said. Early on, two of his friends were killed in action, and he witnessed one, she said. "He saw a lot of stuff - more than most of us could ever handle, I'll bet," Brian Palmer said. "The first tour was really draining on both of us," Smyers-Palmer said. "The war really took its toll on him. He wasn't the same person that I married." The couple would regularly go bowling, shoot pool - "I taught him everything he knew," Jennifer said - watch movies and play quirky songs on the guitar about other people's misfortunes. "If he had a song to sing, he'd sing it," though not well, she said, smiling.

But after his first tour, those things didn't interest Michael anymore. "He viewed everything so differently," Smyers-Palmer said. Eventually, they separated and filed for divorce, though it had not been finalized before Michael passed away. The couple was also trying to sell a house they bought together in Ernest in 2006. "He was my best friend. He was the love of my life, but we just knew it wouldn't work out," she said. Jennifer said she pushed for Michael to attend marriage counseling and asked him not to return to Iraq. "I told him it was the biggest mistake he could make."

"He was a phenomenal person, and he wanted to prosper at everything he did," said Michael's father, Donald Palmer Sr. "He is going to be sadly missed." Palmer Sr. knows loss. In his 65 years, he has now had to bury three sons and a wife. His first child, Charles Arthur, choked to death in a highchair in 1965. "I was downstairs to do wash, and I came back and I tried to revive him, but it was no use," Don said, tearing up. Another son, Bucky Adams, died in his crib in 1971. Don's wife, June, passed away from cancer in 2001, a day before Michael's 16th birthday. "I've been through a lot in my life," Palmer Sr. said.

In addition to his father, Michael leaves behind a daughter, 18-month-old Madison, who was born during Michael's second deployment. The military granted him a four-day leave so he could be there.

He is also survived by sisters Laura Piraino, of North Carolina; Lavone Warr, of Waynesburg; and brothers John Smith, of Shelocta; and Donald Palmer Jr., of Shelocta.

Though Michael strongly resisted counseling, Smyers-Palmer said she wishes the military was able to force soldiers to undergo therapy. The military "was aware he was having problems. He wasn't stable enough to go" back to Iraq, she said. "It kills their spirit."

While the military does not require veterans to participate in counseling, Master Sgt. Deb Wilkins said the military goes to great lengths to make sure soldiers know help is available. Returning soldiers go through a two-week "cooling-down period," where officers look for warning signs before they are discharged, Wilkins said. Then, six months after a tour of duty, soldiers must undergo another physical and mental screening. And they and their families are eligible for treatment through Veterans Affairs for two years. "They're not kicked to the wayside," she said. Wilkins, 37, was in command of Michael's platoon during his first tour. "When I got the call, I was actually surprised because we had other soldiers who were more at risk for that sort of thing. He's more of a jokester, and he made sure no one knew he was bothered that much. It never crossed my mind." Increasingly, though, addressing the rising suicide rate in the military is becoming a priority. Last year, the U.S. Army reported that at least 128 soldiers committed suicide, the highest level since the Vietnam War. "The military has been improving on what they do for vets," Wilkins said. "This in no way mars the fact that he helped bring my soldiers home," Wilkins said. "These were babies over there. These guys did an amazing job." Wilkins said she, too, questioned why Palmer wanted to return to the war zone. "It was just too soon. Mike had been through a lot." She said he had even been considering re-enlisting so he could make a third trip. In the meantime, Michael served with most of his company providing security in Washington, D.C., for President Obama's inauguration. "He had a heart the size of the Grand Canyon," Brian Palmer said. "There's going to be so many people who miss out on what he had to give."

Michael M. Palmer, 23, of Indiana, died Wednesday, Jan. 28, 2009, at Indiana Regional Medical Center.

Michael is survived by his wife, Jennifer Smyers-Palmer, Indiana; a daughter, Madison Palmer, of Indiana; his father, of Indiana; three brothers and two sisters: Brian Palmer, Port Clinton, Ohio; Laura Piraino, of North Carolina; and Lavone Warr, Waynesburg; John Smith, Shelocta; Donald Palmer Jr., Shelocta; several nieces and nephews; his mother-in-law, Linda Smyers, of Indiana; and his grandfather-in-law, Gifford Rising, of Clymer.

Friends will be received from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Monday at the Bowser-Minich Funeral Home, Indiana, where a funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday with the Rev. R. Bruce Shannon officiating. Interment will be in the Greenwood Cemetery, Indiana.

James Palmer Obituary

James Richard Palmer, 69, of Indiana, passed away peacefully at home on Thursday, September 19, 2024. Born to William Palmer and Beulah Isenberg, Jim was one of 11 siblings in a large and loving family.

Jim dedicated 30 years of his life working for S.W. Jack and in the mines. Outside of work, he was happiest when he had his hands busy-whether working on cars, tinkering with just about anything, or enjoying outdoor activities like hunting. He also loved taking trips to the beach and the family camp. Some of his favorite moments were spent sitting on his porch with a cigarette and McDonald's coffee, or parked in the Walmart lot, people-watching. Above all, his greatest joy came from spending time with his large, often chaotic, but always loving family. Being surrounded by his grandkids and great-grandkids, whom he adored, was the highlight of his life.

Jim is survived by his beloved wife of 50 years, Rose (Mountain) Palmer; his children, Pam (Bill) Vojtek of Indiana, Steven (Leia) Palmer of Indiana, Brian "BJ" (Leanna) Palmer of North Carolina, and Jason Palmer of Indiana; as well as numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, and nephews. He was blessed with many grandchildren and great-grandchildren-so many that he often affectionately described them as "a fk ton"-and he loved them all dearly.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, William Jr., and sister, Alice.

Jim was known as the most loved "pain in the ass" anyone ever met. He never took life too seriously, often dropping his favorite word-"fk"-into conversations, and he didn't care much for making a fuss over anything. His straightforward, down-to-earth nature and his unapologetic sense of humor will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

Friends will be received on Sunday from 12 to 2 pm at the John A Lefdahl Funeral Home. Funeral service will immediately follow in the Lefdahl Chapel with Pastor Brandon Mountan and Leo Mountan, officiating.

Interment will follow in the Greenwood Cemetery.
