

Descendants of James Strong

Generation 1

1. James¹ Strong¹⁻¹¹ was born on Feb 02, 1727 in British Isles.¹² He died on Mar 23, 1804 in Windsor Township, York County, Pennsylvania.¹² He married Mary Magdalena Immenhauser, daughter of Adam Immenheiser and Anna Margaretha Wilhelm, on Nov 02, 1763 in St. James Church, Lancaster, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.¹³ She was born in 1745 in Hessen, Rhein Essen, Stadelcken, Germany.¹² She died in 1810 in Lower Windsor Township, York County, Pennsylvania.¹²

James Strong was buried in Canadochly Cemetery, Lower Windsor Township, York County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for James Strong:
[Immenheiser2.FTW]

James aka Schim Strang
Maria M. aka Maria Magdalena,
Inheiser Also spelled Emenheiser, Imenheiser, Immenheiser, Emenhauser

James Strong is buried under his german name "Schim Strang" in the Canadochley Lutheran Cemetery in York County.

There are conflicting dates on James's DOB (1727 or 1725)

Tradition credits James Strong with being Scottish-Irish. Supposedly he desired to come from Ireland to America but was without sufficient passage money. Upon arrival in Pennsylvania, he was indentured to a German man in order to provide the ship's captain with his passage money. The story continues that he served his indenture, adopted the German language and then he married one of the daughters.

Mary M. Inheiser came 7 Sept 1748 with her father, Adam, on the ship Hampshire, landing at the Port of Philadelphia.

Revolutionary Service: (1) James Strong, member 5th class of Inhabitants of Chanceford Twp., classified under Act of Assembly passed in 1780, entitled "An act to complete the Quota of the Federal Army" each class required to provide in fifteen days from this date (Jan 30, 1781) one able bodied recruit for the Continental Army, to serve during the war, under penalty of a 15 pound specie: this class found a recruit. (Class List MSS, The Historical Society of York County, H.J. Young, York Co. in the American Revolution.") (2) James Strong of Hellam Twp., private in the 3rd class, Fourth Co., Second Battalion, York Co., Militia, according to a return dated Apr 17, 1778. (3) James Strong of Windsor Twp., private in the 7th class, First Co., 3rd Battalion, York Co. Militia, according to a return dated Apr 17, 1778.

It is possible that James is Joel Strong # 19911, listed in Dwight's History Joell is listed as being English and having fought in the Revolutionary War, Captured by Indians and escaping after several months detention in their grasp. Joel had two brothers, Joseph a cabinet maker and James. James had two sons, Washington and Jefferson. (Although Dwight thought this may have been a possibility no connection has been proven.)

Hello, all. I am quoting here from a letter dated Nov.2, 1988, received from Grace Williams of Strongsville, Ohio:

"I am enclosing a chart on my James Strong. This was worked on by a cousin in Indiana, Penna. who was working on genealogy about 30 years before my time of 1955 when I became seriously interested. She was very accurate and as I have been going back and obtaining proof on these items, I have not found any errors. I became (sic) to know her well and stayed with her and her husband many times over the years. I have rechecked the places she found marriages and baptisms etc and they are all correct.

"All I know of is the tradition that she found by visiting the area of York County back in the 1940's and 1950's before I had met her. The son Adam Strong's farm was and is still there and she talked of the family and they repeated to her the same tradition. He (Jim or Schim Strang) was of Scotch Irish descent, became indentured to Adam Immenheiser and later married the daughter. He learned the language also. He had two tombstones, one in English and one in German and these are copied in the York County cemetery records that were done in the 1930's. I have been to the cemetery but they were gone by that time so no pictures could be taken. I don't know if he became indentured for the purchase of land as Adam seemed to sell land mostly to his son-in-laws and James Strong Sr. purchased land later as far as we can tell by the deeds in York Co. Pa.

"The strange part is that in March 7, 1769 Anna Margaret Strong married Michael Peyrot (Beyrot etc) and James and Mary (Maria) are married in November of that same year. There is a child baptised in 1771 for Anna Margaret and Michael but I could find none later so I presume they moved on. I have had some queries in the Southeastern Penna. Newsletter but so far no nibbles on that last name. I feel there might be a connection between the two."

In a letter dated March 15, 1989, Grace Williams went on to say, " James Strong Sr. & Maria Ihmenheiser were married in St. James in 1763 while their son Adam Strong was baptised in 1769 at the same church. The same church is where Adam's brother Francis Henry was baptised in 1768. This only means to me that the minister from that church at that time rode the circuit and did the marriages and baptisms. In reading the histories of this area, you see that this is true. Part of my project now is combining the tax records for these people and deeds to prove they were on the other side of the river. Adam Ihmenheiser was and I feel sure James Strong was all the time...."

The chart Grace Williams attached to the Nov. 2, 1988 letter is quoted as follows:

"JAMES STRONG, SR. (also known as Schim Strang) B. 2 Feb. 1727 (of scotch-Irish descent) D. 23 March 1804 Windsor Twp. York Co., Pa. ae 77 years 1 month 3 weeks Buried Canadochly Cemetery, Windsor Twp. York Co. Pa.

4. George b. about 1770 Married 13 June 1797 Mary Fissyey d. unknown at present
5. Phillip b. Dec. 1779 bp. 30 Mar. 1780 nothing more known
6. Maria Magdalena b. 11 Aug. 1781 bp. 16 Sept. 1781 Married 31 Aug. 1803 Samuel Adams d. unknown at present
7. John Jacob b. 15 Dec. 1783 bp. 16 May 1784 Married Catherine Schwab d/o Adam d. 26 Aug. 1853 Akron, Fulton Co. Indiana
8. Daughter, name unknown. James will state daughters and only birth for Maria Magdalena has been found to date.

"James will states there were shares to be divided in 8 equal shares. Jacob was the Executor and his (I interpret this as James') wife was still living at that time.

"Mary Magdalena Ihmenheiser is believed to have been born in Germany and her father Adam arrived in 1748. He had 50 acres of land up in Windsor Twp. Berks County, Pa. 6 months after he arrived. If he ever lived there has not been found although he is mentioned as a neighbor having land up there. Adam is in York County by 1754 as he has a daughter baptised at that time at Canadochly Church."

Some insights.... Many of the "Pennsylvania Dutch" were in fact German in origin. In the time period ~

1708, in the time of Queen Anne, many Palatine German refugees fled the Palatinate area in Germany. They first went to England, from whence many were sent to a settlement in County Limerick, Ireland, where they took leases which likely lasted about 31 years... there has been much written about this group of the Palatine Germans. After the leases expired, many later emigrated to New York and Pennsylvania; as it happens, a still larger group of the original Palatine German refugees had been sent out to New York back about 1710... So the Irish Palatine contingent were in effect "re-joining" their compatriots in the American Colonies by the 1740's... this may give some clues where to look for Adam Immenheiser prior to 1748... eg. try Limerick, Ireland! Also, James Strang may, I repeat MAY, have come from Limerick, Waterford, or Tipperary himself (Are you listening John Mayer????).

Thats all for now, folks. Hope this gives a lot of food for thought and possible further research!

Regards, Dave Strong

Some sources report that James could have also been born in Ulster, Ireland

Mary Magdalena Immenhauser was buried in Canadochly Cemetery, Lower Windsor Township, York County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Mary Magdalena Immenhauser:
[Immenheiser2.FTW]

Maria arrived aboard the ship Hampshire with her father 7 Sept 1748 from Germany.

Adam arrived with his daughter Maria at the Port of Philadelphia, aboard the ship Hampshire on 7 Sept 1748.

From the book "Rhineland Emigrants, Lists of German Settlers in Colonial America", Edited by Don Yoder and published by Genealogical Publishing Co. Inc. 1985. we find the paragraph.

Emigrants from the Year 1748

6. Friedrich Ploz (Plotz) and Adam Imhauser (Immenhauser) from Stadelcken on February 3, 1748, received permission to leave for the "Island of Pennsylvania" [Insul Pinsylvanian], on payment of 15 and 10 florins for buying out their vassalage and payment of the tithe (tenth penny). They landed at Philadelphia on the ship Hampshire on Sept. 7, 1748 (Strassburger-Hinke, List 118 A-C) List A gives Ploz's age as 36, and Imhausers as 25. {1}

In order to leave his homeland, Adam was required to sell his property and pay ten percent of its value (tithe) to the state treasury. Adam's property's worth would have been 100 florins. Adam lived under a vestige of vassalage. Therefore, he applied for manumission as well as permission to emigrate {2} He then paid 15 florins to be released.

1. Rhineland Emigrants, List of German Settlers in Colonial America, Edited by Don Yoder, Baltimore, Genealogical Publishing Co Inc, 1985 page 781
2. Op Cit., Introduction, page x

Adam's village, Stadecken (Stadecken-Elsheim) is presently located near Mainz in an area called Rheinhessen in the state of Rheinland-Pfalz. It is very close to the Rhein River on which Adam could have traveled to the Port of Rotterdam.

Frances Strong Helman stated that Adam owned 50 acres of land in Windsor Twp., Berks Cty, PA six months after his arrival and that he may have lived there before moving to York Cty.

Notes by Arthur Wayne Emehizer : The spelling of Immenhauser was used in America only once on the passenger list when Adam came over. His name was spelled various ways on deeds and other documents after he arrived here. The name was spelled many different ways in the census records and land records etc. Thus the early names could have been spelled many different ways. The use of Immenhauser and Emenheiser and others are interchangeable. Some of the more popular spellings found in various documents are IMMENHAUSER, EMENHEISER, EMENHISER, EMENHIZER, EMEHEISER, EMINHIZER, EMAHIZER, EMEHIZER, EMAHISER. If the early spellings are wrong it is because of the various documents. We have tried to maintain the spellings as the original documents have them but where there were confictions, the the name was spelled as most of the documents had them. Even between brothers and sisters the name was spelled differently in some cases. In the Early Families where the spelling was not known for sure, usually Immenhauser or Emenheiser was used in this family history .

Notes received from Gene C. Smith :

Adam was born in 1723 based on his age of twenty-five when he immigrated in 1748. It is assumed he was born in the village of Stadecken, Electoral Palatine Oberamt of Oppenheim, Germany. He took communion in 1736. About 1740 he married Anna Margaret who's last name might be WILHELM. Their daughter, Christina, was born about 1740 in Germany. On February 3, 1748 Adam Imhauser (Immenhauser) and Friedrich Ploz (Plotz) of Stadecken, Oppenheim, Germany received permission to leave for the "Island of Pennsylvania" [Insul Pinsylvaniam], on payment of 10 and 15 Florins respectively for buying out their vassalage [obligation to render military service or its equivalent] and payment of tithe [the tenth part of the annual produce of agriculture, etc, due or paid as a tax](tenth penny). This was granted by the former Electoral Palatine Oberamt of Oppenheim which is south of the city of Mainz in the area now known as Rheinhessen, part of the present state of Rheinland-Pfalz in Germany. From this we know that Adam and wife lived in Stadecken, along the Rhine, in 1748.

Adam and Friedrich Plotz immigrated and took the Oath of Allegiance on September 7, 1748 at Philadelphia, PA. They sailed from Rotterdam, Holland to Falmouth, England and then to Philadelphia, PA. It can be assumed they departed Holland in late June or early July.

Where Adam first lived in America has not been determined but it is not unusual to spend five years as an indentured servant to pay the ship's fare. On March 9, 1749 he warranted 75.5 acres north of Reading, PA. This land he will sell to Adam LUCKENBILL on May 8, 1773. In September 1754 Anna Margaret was born. On August 3, 1756 Anna Maria was born. Both were baptized on September 26, 1756 at the Canadochly church, Lower Windsor township, York County, PA. The sponsors were Michael and Maria Elizabeth Vallendin; and Henry and Anna Maria Wolff. From this it is reasonable to expect that Adam and family lived in or near the Lower Windsor township area. In 1757 John was born. He will move west and establish the western Emenheiser branch. In 1760 Jacob was born. He will establish the eastern Emenheiser branch. Interesting that no baptism record have been found for these two boys. There is reported two other children: Frederick and Elizabeth but I have no cross proof of this fact and doubt the validity at this time.

On March 6, 1765 Thomas ARMOR conveyed to Adam 155 acres in York Township and possibly 115 acres but location not noted. This is the begining of many land deals Adam will make, which indicates a growing estate. On January 6, 1768 Adam sold 61 acres (p/o the 155 acres in York twp) to John KRONE Jr for 20 pounds. At this time Adam lived in Windsor township and was a farmer. On February

17, 1769 Adam patented 26 acres 137 perches, called 'DRY HILL', in Windsor township from Thomas Penn and Richard Penn. On July 15, 1771 Adam sold 61 acres (p/o the 115 acres) to Charles MENGES for 26 pounds. Adam was still living in Windsor township and still a farmer.

On January 30, 1781 Adam was called as a member of the 6th class of Inhabitants of Windsor township to provide an able body (or serve) for the Continental Army to serve during the War. There is no record of how this was satisfied at this time.

On November 11, 1791 Adam bought two tracts of land totaling 70 acres in Windsor township from Robert Bigham for 30 pounds. On May 30, 1792 Adam sold 26 acres 137 perches, call 'DRY HILL', in Windsor township to Col. Jacob Dritt for 75 pounds. Adams was still living in Windsor township but he is now called a 'yeoman'. The last land transaction found was on June 5, 1794 when Adam purchased 120 acres from Robert Bigham.

In 1805 or 1807, Adam and his wife died but the location of burial is unknown.

A word of caution about townships: York township was formed in 1745, in 1758 Windsor township was formed from a part of York township, and in 1838 Lower Windsor township was formed from a part of Windsor township. Some references use the present township but records use the township as established at the time of the record. Example: Canadochly church was built in York township (1755-1758), then was in Windsor township (1758-1838), and then in Lower Windsor township (1838-present).

Adams' house is still standing in East Prospect on the Bank Hill Road heading east from the square. The picture was taken in September 1990 during my visit back there.

Notes From Andree Miller :

Notes for ADAM IMMENHAUSER:

At 25 years of age he immigrated to U.S. from Palatine Germany and was of Swiss origin. Can be found on the Strasburg and Henkles ship list. In 1748, he sailed on the Hampshire , captained by Thomas Cheesman from the port of Rotterdam, Holland on an English vessel. Emanhisers are buried in the Johnsville Shauck Cemetery on 42 in the left hand side of the cemetery(in Ohio). Adam settled in York Co. Pennsylvania. He took the oath of Allegiance in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on Sept 7, 1748. He purchased a tract of land in what is now York County, PA. from Thomas and Richard Penn, Proprietories of the Province of Pennsylvania, signed by John Penn in 1769. Adam was one of the original land owners of Pennsylvania. Sources are "Strassberger Pennsylvania Germans" Vol 1, pages 373,374,& 375 and in the Pennsylvania Archive, series II, Vol. 17, pages 265 & 264. The original ship list is in Harrisburg, PA. and in the Cannadockley Church records in York Co., PA

Susan Strong was buried in Jul 1856 in Salt Lake City Cemetery, Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah.

Notes for Susan Strong:

HISTORY OF SUSAN STRONG, Wife of Henry Mower, Jr.

Susan was born May 3, 1825, in Strongstown, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. She was a bright, happy child, quick to take responsibility in the home. She received the same amount of education offered other children in that area at that time.

On October 20, 1836, Susan was baptized with her family by Elder Erastus Snow. From that time on her testimony never wavered, even though she endured untold hardships and persecutions for the Gospel's sake.

On September 24, 1839, Susan left with her parents, her sister Sarah, and brothers William and John Albert and journeyed westward to join the Saints in the state of Illinois. They arrived on March 18, 1840. Susan was now a young lady of 15.

For a very short time, after gathering at Nauvoo, the Saints enjoyed period of peace from their enemies. In 1841, the Saints, through revelation, were instructed to build a temple, but the mobs stopped them and Susan was living close by when the Prophet Joseph Smith and his brother, Hyrum, were killed on June 27, 1844. In the Relief Society handbook published in 1931, both Sarah and her daughter, Susan, are listed as members of the Nauvoo Relief Society, which was organized March 17, 1842.

Being of marriageable age, Susan was being courted by a fine young man by the name of Henry Mower Jr. He was the son of Henry Mower Sr. and Mary Amick. He and his family were also converts to Mormonism and had joined the Saints in Nauvoo.

This young couple were married on December 11, 1845. She was 20 and he was 21. The temple had been rushed to completion so the sacred ordinances for which it was built could be performed therein. It was February 3, 1846, when Henry and Susan received their own endowments in the Nauvoo Temple.

Soon after this, the great move started from their City Beautiful. The Saints took what little they could with them and crossed the ice-clogged Mississippi River into Iowa where the homeless refugees gathered in temporary camps. One such camp was Council Bluffs or Kaneshville, in Pottawattomie County, Iowa. It was here that Susan and Henry lived the next two years. It was here also that Susan gave birth to her first child, William Henry, on September 24, 1846. The conditions under which this baby was born were so deplorable that the little thing died the next day. By the time their second son, John Albert, was born on August 3, 1847, things were some better.

Records show that Henry, Susan, and their one-year-old son, John Albert, along with her parents and other family members were assigned to travel in Silas Richards' Company. This was a large group which left Kaneshville on July 10, 1849 and arrived in the Salt Lake Valley on October 12, 1849. They were happy indeed to reach their destination. They drove immediately to Pioneer Square which was the stopping place for the emigrants. The houses of the fort furnished a first home for many new arrivals, and this was where Henry and Susan spent their first winter. As soon as possible, they moved out into the city.

Notes for Susan Strong:

HISTORY OF SUSAN STRONG, Wife of Henry Mower, Jr.

Susan was born May 3, 1825, in Strongstown, Indiana County, Pennsylvania. She was a bright, happy child, quick to take responsibility in the home. She received the same amount of education offered other children in that area at that time.

On October 20, 1836, Susan was baptized with her family by Elder Erastus Snow. From that time on her testimony never wavered, even though she endured untold hardships and persecutions for the Gospel's sake.

On September 24, 1839, Susan left with her parents, her sister Sarah, and brothers William and John Albert and journeyed westward to join the Saints in the state of Illinois. They arrived on March 18, 1840. Susan was now a young lady of 15.

For a very short time, after gathering at Nauvoo, the Saints enjoyed period of peace from their enemies. In 1841, the Saints, through revelation, were instructed to build a temple, but the mobs stopped them and Susan was living close by when the Prophet Joseph Smith and his brother, Hyrum, were killed on June 27, 1844. In the Relief Society handbook published in 1931, both Sarah and her daughter, Susan, are listed as members of the Nauvoo Relief Society, which was organized March 17, 1842.

Being of marriageable age, Susan was being courted by a fine young man by the name of Henry Mower Jr. He was the son of Henry Mower Sr. and Mary Amick. He and his family were also converts to Mormonism and had joined the Saints in Nauvoo.

This young couple were married on December 11, 1845. She was 20 and he was 21. The temple had been rushed to completion so the sacred ordinances for which it was built could be performed therein. It was February 3, 1846, when Henry and Susan received their own endowments in the Nauvoo Temple.

Soon after this, the great move started from their City Beautiful. The Saints took what little they could with them and crossed the ice-clogged Mississippi River into Iowa where the homeless refugees gathered in temporary camps. One such camp was Council Bluffs or Kanessville, in Pottawattomie County, Iowa. It was here that Susan and Henry lived the next two years. It was here also that Susan gave birth to her first child, William Henry, on September 24, 1846. The conditions under which this baby was born were so deplorable that the little thing died the next day. By the time their second son, John Albert, was born on August 3, 1847, things were some better.

Records show that Henry, Susan, and their one-year-old son, John Albert, along with her parents and other family members were assigned to travel in Silas Richards' Company. This was a large group which left Kanessville on July 10, 1849 and arrived in the Salt Lake Valley on October 12, 1849. They were happy indeed to reach their destination. They drove immediately to Pioneer Square which was the stopping place for the emigrants. The houses of the fort furnished a first home for many new arrivals, and this was where Henry and Susan spent their first winter. As soon as possible, they moved out into the city.

Henry Mower Jr. was buried on Feb 22, 1902 in Fairview, Sanpete County, Utah.

Notes for Daniel C. Strong:

[Immenheiser2.FTW]

When he enlisted, on 27 Feb 1862, he enlisted and was assigned to Co. F 46 PA Vol he had fair complexion, blue eyes, sandy hair and weighted about 200 pounds. He was mustered out on 16 Jul. 1865.

Pensioned from 5 Feb 1883 at $2, and at $4 from 27 Mar 1889, for chronic diarrhea. He contracted dyspepsia and chronic diarrhea in June 1864 at Point of Rocks, VA, from exposure and poor diet, as was in a General Hosp at that time. He was eventually mustered out 16 Jul 1865.

On 3 Apr 1888, the pensioner stated he and comrade Shank left the hospital against the doctor's orders, a Dr. Strong (he did not know what Co or Reg the doctor was from). They went by steam boat from below the hospital to Appomattox, walked out to the railroad to Gen Ord. Hdqrs. from there they were taken by wagon to their Regt. Men in the company were making briar root tea, so they tried it, and it helped them. The men were still troubled after discharge, First physician was Dr. Row and then Dr. McMullen. The latter had him stop using tobacco because of his stomach condition.

He was in the Regt Hospital, 16 May 1863 to 1 Jun and again 13 Oct. 1863 to 15 Oct. 1864. Other hospital records are missing. Another record show him as absent May and Jun 1864 in the hospital.

Capt. Nesbit (1883) stated on 9 May 1864 they made a forced march from the neighborhood of Petersburg (8-10 miles) and the day was warm and many of the men dropped down.

During his service he was captured and spent a time in Libby prison He was wounded by a stray bullet coming thru the wall of the prison, being saved by the bible in his pocket.

Levi Shank went into the Army with Daniel, and they returned together. Lived on adjoining farms. Levi went down one day to the Strong's and the wife (Sarah) said she had been to Houch's Store and bought Lindsay's Cholera and Diaorrhea Cure and she got the bottle and gave Levi a dose. It seemed to help him. He and grandfather (Daniel) both went to Houch's store for this medicine.

He died 21 Oct 1911, married Sarah Brown 21 Nov 1861, at the home of Henry Brown, Rayne Twp. by Rev. W.S. Emery, a Lutheran minister. She (Sarah) had the original certificate in 1898.

W.R. Lydick and Johnson Moorhead stated they were near neighbors, and lived in sight of the Strong home. They were present at the "infair" (reception) immediatly after their marriage. That Daniel Strong died suddenly outside the home on 21 Oct. 1911. They helped bring the body in and prepare it for burial.

Lucinda Long, age 68, said she was a sister, had attended the wedding.

The family physician was T.D. Stephans, MD of Penn Run. The undertaker for Daniel Strong was J.M. Fyock, of Penn Run.

Sarah was paid (Daniel's pension) at $12 until 4 Jan. 1916, she died 18 Jan. 1916. (Recorded from the records of Francis Strong Helman, gdaughter, located

Notes for Gertrude Pittman:

The Indiana Gazette, Indiana, Pennsylvania (September 2, 1898)

Mr. M. A. Miller, of Bolivar, and Miss Gertrude Pittman, of Brushvalley township, were united in marriage last Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed at the M. E. parsonage in Mechanicsburg by Rev. J. M. Cogley.

According to the 1920 Census, Gertrude and her family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

This write-up was believed to be written by Ruth (Warfel) Robertson:

Andrew and Hannah Pittman were parents of three children, Alphorettam, a baby girl who died at the age of four months and seventeen days. Harry contacted pneumonia and died at the age of nineteen. The four of them are buried in a small cemetery located on Cemetery Road, off route 259N, near the town of Brush Valley, Pa.

Gertrude Pittman, the surviving child of Andrew and Hannah (Pittman) Pittman, Hannah no relation to Andrew, lived on a farm outside of Brush Valley with her parents. The farm was large and today route 259N goes through the "cow pasture" that belonged to the farm. The farm house is still standing with a few changes and the barn is also there in fair condition. When Andrew and Hannah sold their farm they moved into the town of Brush Valley. The house is located along the main highway and directly across from a small gas station-grocery store. After Hannah died in 1928, Andrew sold the house and went to Homewood, Pa. to live with his daughter Gertrude.

Matthew Anderson Miller, son of Michael and Susan (Lapool) Miller, lived about two miles past the Pittman's farm. Michael Miller ran a grist mill on his farm, his other children were John Shields, Golden, Gladys, and Annie.

When Gertrude Pittman married Matthew Miller they moved to Bolivar, Pa., where Matthew worked at Hammonds grist mill and lived in the house beside it. The grist mill was located across the creek from the old Bolivar ball field, near the railroad arch, where the creek flows into the Conemaugh River. His brother John Shields also worked with him. Florence (1899) and Cora (1902) Miller were born in this house. From here the family moved to the corner of Second and Shaffer Street, this house was later known as the Moose Lodge Home.

Andrew Pittman bought a parcel of land on Shaffer Street in Bolivar for his daughter Gertrude, and Matthew built the family home and his own flour mill. Edna (1904) and Gladys (1910) Miller were born here. The local farmers brought their corn and other grains to the mill to be ground and Matthew also made flour and sold to other customers in town.

At the beginning of every summer the Pittman Grandparent's would arrive at the home of Gertrude and Matthew in their horse and buggy, which had a seat in back of the driver's seat, and take Florence and Cora to the farm to spend the summer. This was about a four hour trip which started after lunch. Edna was not well enough to stay and Gladys was too young, but they did visit the farm with their mother at other times. Florence and Cora did small house jobs for their grand mother and would ride in the horse and buggy with their grandpap to take milk, butter and cheese into Indiana (Pa.) to sell on Saturdays.

When work was slow at the grist mill Matthew started working for Ridgeview Coal Company. While working outside doing heavy lifting he was injured and died within two days at the age of 50. He is buried in West View Cemetary, Bolivar, Pa. One of Cora's fond memories of her dad was his taking Florence and her on Sunday visits to the Modesto (Mose) Bernabo farm, who sold milk to the local town people. The farm was located half way up the ridge above the West Bolivar bridge. Also after the girls grandmother Miller died, their grandfather Michael Miller came to live with them until his death in 1912. He always sat in a chair beside the coal stove and slept a lot. About eight years after Matthew died Gertrude married a former boyfriend who had lived in Brush Valley, Daniel Donahey, and they moved to Homewood, Pa. Daniel worked for the post office. Florence, Cora and Edna were married but Gladys was not and was living with her mother and step-father. Gertrude had asthma most of her life and was ill a lot of the time. She contacted pneumonia and died in 1930. Against the girls wishes, she was buried in Homewood Cemetary. Her daughter Edna Mae Miller Wunschell is also buried there. Four years after Gertrude's death Daniel committed suicide using a small hand revolver and is buried beside Gertrude in Homewood (Pa.) Cemetary.

The following is from a clipping found at the Historical Society files in Indiana, Pa.

Harry Pittman, a son of Andrew Pittman, of Brushvalley township died on Saturday of pneumonia after an illness of a week. He was aged 19 yrs-6mo. The funeral was held on Saturday. (4-14-1900)

From the 1850 census the following was recorded:

Benjamin Pittman, farmer age 30
Mary Pittman, wife age 32
Jane Pittman age 11
Miriam Pittman age 10
Mary Pittman age 5
Andrew Pittman age 3

This Andrew Pittman should be the husband of Hannah Pittman and the father of Gertrude Pittman.

Notes for George Hotham Strong:
George Hotham Strong

AGE: 87 • Locust

George Hotham Strong, of Locust, died Sunday, Jan. 5, 2014, as a result of cardiac arrest at the age of 87. Descended from 18th century settlers of Strongstown, PA, he was born in 1926 in Johnstown, PA. He was the son of George Hite Strong and Mary Elizabeth Hotham Strong. His grandfather, Amos D. Strong was first to leave the family farm in Strongstown to establish a mining supply company serving the newly developed bituminous coal mines feeding the two large steel mills in Johnstown, PA. With partners, his grandfather established a bank and built a railroad to transport coal to the mills. His father followed the family's merchant tradition, being in the retail furniture business while his mother sang professionally on a radio program and taught music in Johnstown. His two sisters, Rebecca and Marjorie, married with grown children, live in the Pittsburgh, PA area.

After attending public schools in suburban Johnstown, he entered Allegheny College, Meadville, PA in January 1944 on a scholarship, without finishing high school. In November 1944, he entered the U.S. Army, serving until December 1946 in southern Italy in the administrative company of the largest U.S. Prisoner of War Enclosure in Italy. In addition to 18,000 German and Italian war prisoners, the camp contained a Maximum Security Compound where the German war criminals, later tried at Nuremberg, were held and interrogated. He returned to Allegheny College after the War and was graduated in 1949, Magna Cum Laude, Salutatorian, and Phi Beta Kappa. The following September, he entered Harvard Business School, graduating with an MBA in 1951.

He began work in the Corporate Finance Dept. of Smith, Barney & Co., then at 14 Wall Street, upon graduation from HBS, having spent the previous summer as a trainee at Goldman Sachs. After 5 years in corporate finance, during which he spent 6 months in Saudi Arabia on a project to liquefy natural gas, he went into institutional sales and then general management as head of the Boston Office, the firm's fourth largest. In 1967, he left Smith Barney to join the Ecuadorian Corporation to manage its diversification program and transformation from a beer and cement company in Ecuador into the Norlin Corporation, a large U.S. conglomerate producing electronics, musical instruments and powdered metallurgy products. In 1974, he became a consultant with Arthur D. Little & Co. to work on organizing a venture capital subsidiary for A. D. Little. In the economic recession which began in the early 1970's, American Medicorp, the nation's second largest hospital chain, experienced severe financial difficulties. The outside directors replaced the entire senior management and he was recruited as part of the new "turn-around team" as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

After a successful recovery, American Medicorp was taken over in an opposed tender in 1979, and he was one of three senior executives leaving to form a new hospital chain, Universal Health Services, Inc. UHS grew rapidly and by 1985 sales exceeded on billion dollars. The company had gone public and was listed on the New York Stock Exchange. George decided to take early retirement and become a private investor and corporate director, concentrating on venture and early stage healthcare companies. Over the next 20 years, he was a member of the boards of directors of the following corporations: Ameri Source Corp., drug wholesaler; Balanced Care, Inc., assisted living; Biocyte Corp., human stem cell storage; Chicago Musical Instruments Co.; Clinical Partners, Aids case management; Core Funds, mutual funds management; Curaflex Corporation, home infusion products; Hanover Healthcare, Inc., nursing homes; Integrated Health Services, nursing homes; Healthsouth Corporation, rehabilitation and outpatient surgery; Managed Care, USA, managed care; Medical Property Investors, medical office buildings; Pocantico Development, private investment.

For more than 50 years, he served on the Reunion Committee of his Harvard Business School class and for most of those years was either chairman or co-chairman of the Special Gifts Committee. He was a member of the Leadership Council of the Harvard School of Public Health and of Harvard University's Committee on University Resources. Locally, he served on the Board of the Red Bank YMCA and the Riverside Drive Association, having been its chairman for two terms. His clubs included: Harvard Club of New York, Union League of Philadelphia, Rumson Country Club, Seabright Lawn Tennis & Cricket Club, Seabright Beach Club. He was a member of All Saints Memorial Church in Navesink.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Mary Lou Strong; three children, Cynthia Strong Hibbard of Cambridge, Mass., Dexter Strong of Providence, RI, and Sarah Strong Bornstein of Danvers, Mass. and six grandchildren. Two sisters, Marjorie Schaeffer and Rebecca Auman, both of Pittsburgh also survive.

Alfred Bruce Clawson was buried in Armagh Cemetery, Armagh, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Alfred Bruce Clawson:

The one story that I like to use about my grandpap Clawson is that he was disabled by two different work related accidents. In one, he lost three fingers on his right hand in 1915 (occurred before 1918 according to a draft registration card) and he had only his thumb and pointer finger. He had the other arm amputated above the elbow in another work related accident when his shirt sleeve got caught in some machinery in 1938. When he was in his sixties and seventies, he was the manager at a Western Auto store in Seward, Pennsylvania. One day, a young guy came in and pulled a gun on him and tried to rob him. I guess he figured he would be an easy prey since he was old and disabled. My grandfather reached under the counter and pulled out the gun (A 38, I believe) that he always had at the store with him and told the guy that if he didn't leave the store in five seconds that he was going to shoot him. This guy didn't expect this and he hightailed out the store without ever trying to take my grandfather on. They caught this guy later on. My grandfather could be downright stern when he needed to be but he was still a fun person to be around. Also with his disabilities, he drove a standard shift automobile most of his life. (Told by Keith Clawson)

As told by Bruce A. Clawson, when A. Bruce Clawson was growing up, he lived with his parents near the Pennsylvania Railroad main tracks near Bolivar. When walking the tracks such as to go into Bolivar, he would carry a loaded pistol. This was due to number of hobos who would ride the freight trains that passed through. The hobos were known to attack and sometimes kill people that they would encounter along the tracks.

Another story told by Bruce A. was that A. Bruce and his brother Bobby (Ralph Davis Clawson) were going through Oak Grove (north of Ligonier) in an automobile one time. A. Bruce was driving the automobile. Someone ran from the side of the road and hopped on the running boards of the automobile. A. Bruce told his brother to get the man off the car and Bobby pushed him off the car. Bobby then proceeded to fire a few shots from a pistol at this person's feet to make sure he ran away and left them alone.

According to the 1930 census, Bruce and his family were living in Bolivar, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Alfred Bruce Clawson and Florence Hannah Miller had the following children:

Notes for George Hotham Strong:
George Hotham Strong

AGE: 87 • Locust

George Hotham Strong, of Locust, died Sunday, Jan. 5, 2014, as a result of cardiac arrest at the age of 87. Descended from 18th century settlers of Strongstown, PA, he was born in 1926 in Johnstown, PA. He was the son of George Hite Strong and Mary Elizabeth Hotham Strong. His grandfather, Amos D. Strong was first to leave the family farm in Strongstown to establish a mining supply company serving the newly developed bituminous coal mines feeding the two large steel mills in Johnstown, PA. With partners, his grandfather established a bank and built a railroad to transport coal to the mills. His father followed the family's merchant tradition, being in the retail furniture business while his mother sang professionally on a radio program and taught music in Johnstown. His two sisters, Rebecca and Marjorie, married with grown children, live in the Pittsburgh, PA area.

After attending public schools in suburban Johnstown, he entered Allegheny College, Meadville, PA in January 1944 on a scholarship, without finishing high school. In November 1944, he entered the U.S. Army, serving until December 1946 in southern Italy in the administrative company of the largest U.S. Prisoner of War Enclosure in Italy. In addition to 18,000 German and Italian war prisoners, the camp contained a Maximum Security Compound where the German war criminals, later tried at Nuremberg, were held and interrogated. He returned to Allegheny College after the War and was graduated in 1949, Magna Cum Laude, Salutatorian, and Phi Beta Kappa. The following September, he entered Harvard Business School, graduating with an MBA in 1951.

He began work in the Corporate Finance Dept. of Smith, Barney & Co., then at 14 Wall Street, upon graduation from HBS, having spent the previous summer as a trainee at Goldman Sachs. After 5 years in corporate finance, during which he spent 6 months in Saudi Arabia on a project to liquefy natural gas, he went into institutional sales and then general management as head of the Boston Office, the firm's fourth largest. In 1967, he left Smith Barney to join the Ecuadorian Corporation to manage its diversification program and transformation from a beer and cement company in Ecuador into the Norlin Corporation, a large U.S. conglomerate producing electronics, musical instruments and powdered metallurgy products. In 1974, he became a consultant with Arthur D. Little & Co. to work on organizing a venture capital subsidiary for A. D. Little. In the economic recession which began in the early 1970's, American Mediacorp, the nation's second largest hospital chain, experienced severe financial difficulties. The outside directors replaced the entire senior management and he was recruited as part of the new "turn-around team" as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

After a successful recovery, American Mediacorp was taken over in an opposed tender in 1979, and he was one of three senior executives leaving to form a new hospital chain, Universal Health Services, Inc. UHS grew rapidly and by 1985 sales exceeded one billion dollars. The company had gone public and was listed on the New York Stock Exchange. George decided to take early retirement and become a private investor and corporate director, concentrating on venture and early stage healthcare companies. Over the next 20 years, he was a member of the boards of directors of the following corporations: Ameri Source Corp., drug wholesaler; Balanced Care, Inc., assisted living; Biocyte Corp., human stem cell storage; Chicago Musical Instruments Co.; Clinical Partners, Aids case management; Core Funds, mutual funds management; Curaflex Corporation, home infusion products; Hanover Healthcare, Inc., nursing homes; Integrated Health Services, nursing homes; Healthsouth Corporation, rehabilitation and outpatient surgery; Managed Care, USA, managed care; Medical Property Investors, medical office buildings; Pocantico Development, private investment.

For more than 50 years, he served on the Reunion Committee of his Harvard Business School class and for most of those years was either chairman or co-chairman of the Special Gifts Committee. He was a member of the Leadership Council of the Harvard School of Public Health and of Harvard University's Committee on University Resources. Locally, he served on the Board of the Red Bank YMCA and the Riverside Drive Association, having been its chairman for two terms. His clubs included: Harvard Club of New York, Union League of Philadelphia, Rumson Country Club, Seabright Lawn Tennis & Cricket Club, Seabright Beach Club. He was a member of All Saints Memorial Church in Navesink.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Mary Lou Strong; three children, Cynthia Strong Hibbard of Cambridge, Mass., Dexter Strong of Providence, RI, and Sarah Strong Bornstein of Danvers, Mass. and six grandchildren. Two sisters, Marjorie Schaeffer and Rebecca Auman, both of Pittsburgh also survive.

A funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, Jan. 10 at All Saints Memorial Church in Navesink. Donations in lieu of flowers should be sent to the American Heart Association . Thompson Memorial Home in Red Bank, is in charge of arrangements.

James W. "Butch" Miller Sr.(1949 - 2014)

"Butch"

James W. Miller, Sr.

AGE: 64 • Townsend

"Butch", James W. Miller, Sr., 64 of Townsend, passed away surrounded by his wife and sons on Monday, May 19, 2014.

Butch was born on August 6, 1949 in Indiana, Pennsylvania, son of the late James A., born in Bolivar, Pennsylvania, and Della (Halloran) Miller, born in County Mayo, Ireland. He was recently predeceased by "Aunt Ruth" B. Skelley, who lived with him and his wife, Grace, for nearly forty years.

Together with his wife and son, John, Butch founded J. W. Miller Welding & Boiler Repair Company, Inc. in 1996. A welder and boilermaker by trade, he previously worked at Potts Welding in New Castle, Delaware for thirty years. Butch served his country honorably in the United States Army.

Butch was known for the pride he took in his work and would not have his name associated with a job unless that job was done right. He enjoyed building things, especially out of metal. A generous man, Butch would often make repairs for others in need, especially those older than he, without accepting something in return. He rebuilt cars and trucks, skills he learned working in his father's auto garage and gas station while a teenager. His truck was always clean, inside and out, and the mower lines on his lawn were always straight.

Butch is survived by his wife of nearly forty-six years, Grace (Walther); his sons of whom he was very proud, Jim of Manhattan, New York City, and John and his wife, Liz of Townsend; his beloved granddaughter, Maura Ellen, whom he affectionately called "Boo"; his favorite dog, Sandy; his sister, Kathleen Blair of Wilmington; his brother, Thomas Miller of Townsend; and his many nieces and nephews. Butch will be dearly missed by his cousins with whom he grew close after discovering a love for traveling throughout Ireland, England and Scotland.

Butch's family would like to acknowledge the nurses, doctors and staff at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, Christiana Hospital and the Wilmington Hospital Center for Rehabilitation for the skill, care and thoughtfulness they provided during his illness.

Family and friends are invited to visit at the Doherty Funeral Home, 3200 Limestone Road, Pike Creek on Thursday, May 29 from 5:00-7:00PM. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. John the Beloved Church, 907 Milltown Road, Wilmington on Friday, May 30 at 9:30AM. Interment will follow in All Saints Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Wilmington Hospital Center for Rehabilitation, 501 E. 14th Street, Wilmington, DE 19801.

She resided in Bolivar most of her life and was highly respected and known beyond the boundaries of the town. Carrie Deane was "famous" for her scrumptious home-made bread, rolls, cinnamon buns, cakes, pies, and more. All of her grandchildren and great grandchildren as well as many others are proud owners of her crocheted blankets. For many years, her Bolivar neighbors and friends canned beets, made garden special, and more in her well suited basement. She provided, over the years, donated baked goods to churches and elder care homes. Perhaps, though, she is best remembered as an extremely gracious, loving, kind, mother, and grandmother. Nothing was more important to Carrie Deane than her family, neighbors, and friends. In addition to her parents she was predeceased by her loving husband, William Z. Clawson who died in 2002 and these siblings: Isabell, Grace, Joseph, Patty, and Charlotte. She is survived by two sons, William (Betty) Clawson, Dennis (Carol) Clawson, a sister, Betty Graymus, a brother, Paul Hall, five grandchildren: Billie Sue (Dave) Early, Kimberly Clawson, Adam (Carolyn) Clawson, Stephanie (Mike) Zezzo and Suzanne (John) Dzvonick who all loved her and spent many days and nights learning how to cook and bake. She is also survived by these great-grandchildren: Daniel and Matthew Early, Ashley Victoriana, Breanna, Danielle, and Evan Clawson, Cole and Sophia Zezzo and Lydia and Lucas Dzvoncik, and numerous nieces and nephews. The family wishes to acknowledge the love and care provided by the Bolivar "family." Super special thanks goes to Pat Skavang and Katthy Griffith as well as Michael Robertson who were there every step of the way. Many, many other relatives, neighbors, and friends are also thanked for friendly visits, occasional personal care, and the delivery of delicious food. A huge thank you is to be given to Newhaven Court's highly skilled and caring staff and the nurses and staff from Bridges Hospice. A private graveside burial will take place at the Bolivar Westview Cemetery at the convenience of the family. A well deserved memorial service will be held at a later time and date to be announced. Mary Ellen Nedimyer tells us this history (1994). My brother Kenneth died from Scarlet Fever a week before my mother died of the same illness. My sister Dorajean had it so severely that she got encephalitis. Jack was unconscious for 25 days and went into meningitis. Both children were in a coma. Jack had a hearing problem from then on. After my mother died and the quarantine was taken from the door, my 16 year old aunt MADALYN, my mothers sister, and Dorajean, Lois, Jack and I were taken to my mother's father's home. This was not a good arrangement because my mother's mother had died and my grandfather had remarried. His wife did not want any of us there. My grandfather took me to live with a childless family in Altoona, PA, and they took care of me from 1934 till 1938 when my father discerned that his wife did not want the responsibility of 4 children to raise, so my father gave permission that LOIS be adopted by the MURSH family in Pittsburgh, PA, and I be adopted by the LUKE family in Altoona, PA.

Notes for Marilyn Ruth Allred:

Marilyn Ruth Allred (June 12, 1936 - December 30, 1943)

Irene phoned me (Armond Eugene Allred) at the Orange Inn and said that I had better get a doctor for Marilyn, as she was very sick and to do it very fast. I got the poor doctor and he came to our home in Brishane, CA to help our sick little Marilyn. We took Marilyn to the Sutter Hospital in San Francisco, CA. The doctor was sick himself, in fact he died two week later. Irene was very sick with pneumonia at home. December 28, 1943, I spent most of the day with Marilyn in the hospital besides taking care of our fountain lunch business (Orange Inn) and going home to see how Irene and the Children (Horace Eugene, Robert Armond & Diane Florence) were doing. Then I would rush back to the hospital, I had my cousin Wallace N. Allred (Bishop of the Mission Ward) come to the hospital so we could administer to Marilyn.

December 29, 1943, the nurses told me that the doctor was doing nothing for Marilyn, so I started to try and get another doctor, This was during the Second World War and doctor's were not easy to get.

December 30, 1943, I was able to get a specialist after many phone calls. The doctor said that I would have to move Marilyn to the Children's Hospital out on California Street, so we got an ambulance to move little Marilyn and on the way to Children's Hospital, Marilyn passed before we could get her to the hospital. I called Bishop Claude W. Nalder who had a mortuary business and a very good friend of ours. He said that he would take care of every thing, thats when I needed a good friend.

I came home from the hospital and when I came into Irene's bedroom, Irene asked me how little Marilyn was and I told my sweetheart that Marilyn had passed away. Marilyn had meningitis, inflammation of the brain. Irene and all the children had to be taken to Children's Hospital. They were in the hospital for about a week.

Bishop Nalder and Bishop Allred took care of Marilyn's funeral. Marilyn was buried at Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Colma, CA. On her headstone we have inscribed: John 3; verse 16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

From Armond Eugene Allred.

Notes for Paul Watts Allred:

Note written in Birthday card to son Paul Watts Allred Dated Sept. 9, 1995.

Happy Birthday Paul Watts Allred - your mother took H.E. and Robert to Kanosh, Utah in July 1935 so we could save enough money so we could go to the Logan Temple in September. I paid a man $10.00 to ride with him from San Francisco, CA to Salt Lake City, UT. Your mother rode the bus with your brothers to S.L.C. We stayed over night with my Father. Your Mother's uncle Harry Bowen took us to Logan the next day. That saved us some money. We stayed over night in a Hotel, the next morning we ate our breakfast, then we walked up to the Temple. We had to walk across a little stream of water on a little bridge. Your mother said the clear water looked so good. We had our endowments, sealings and had our marriage solomized at the altar for all eternity. We took a train ride back to Oakland, CA and got a ferry boat and crossed the bay, then rode #21 Street Car to our apartment. When we came in our apt. we had enough money to buy a quart of milk and a nickel to ride the street car back to my work. The best birthday gift your mother and I could ever give you and your brothers and sister, is that you last 4 were born under the Covenants we made September 4, 1935 at the Logan Temple.

Your father with Love,
A. E. Allred

Notes for Robert William Overman Jr.:

Robert William Overman, known as "Bob," was born May 20, 1946, and passed away September 21, 2015. He was a native of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, born to Robert W. Overman, Sr. and Ruby E. Overman. He was proud of his father who was a steelworker, and the perception capabilities of his mother. He is survived by his son, Tracy D. Overman; his sister, Zoe Overman Salem, and nephews and niece, Kerry Salem, Kody Salem, Kory Salem and Kammy Schreiner. Bob was educated in secondary schools in Pennsylvania and Canada. He obtained his bachelor's degree from the University of Tennessee and received his doctorate in Psychology from the University of Tennessee. He was a part of the criminal justice program of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department and joined Guardsmark, Inc. in September 1978. He had a meteoric rise at Guardsmark, eventually becoming Vice President of Human Resources and was involved in the growth of the company from $25 million in annual revenues to $563 million. He was responsible for the overall selection of employees that numbered 18,000. He was the foremost expert in psychological testing in the private security industry. He was involved in literally hundreds of thousands of transactions involving people in 50 states, Puerto Rico, Canada and the United Kingdom. He played a very critical role in the history of the development of Guardsmark because of his singular focus on trying to recruit the best people and enhance their lives through better performance, evaluating their strengths and weaknesses throughout his tenure. He was known by those in the highest ranking positions of the FBI, the Secret Service and CIA. He was able to show them things that were in place in the Guardsmark program of which he was proud, and they listened and were impressed. His progression of professional contacts included many governors and senators. Bob loved Guardsmark greatly and had a number of other interests, but his hometown roots kept him a loyal and devoted Pittsburgh Steelers' football fan. And he was loyal to his alma mater, the University of Tennessee. His keen insights into people put him in the position of promoting thousands during his career. He changed lives for those who worked within the company. Having spent 37 years at Guardsmark, he is mourned by thousands whose lives he touched. Ira A. Lipman, Founder of Guardsmark, stated, "Bob Overman was one of the greatest executives and people that I have ever worked with in my business career. He was hardworking, loyal, dedicated and committed to the success of Guardsmark and the success of all who were part of the Guardsmark team. He was focused on perfection and reached excellence in his career with the company. I will never forget him." He was a great admirer of the late Rev. Adrian Rogers, and accompanied him on an overseas trip. Over the years he regularly attended services at Bellevue Baptist Church and at Highpoint Church in Memphis, Tennessee. A gathering of family and friends will be held on Wednesday, September 30 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Family Funeral Care, 4925 Summer Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee, 38122. The family will also receive friends from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. on Thursday, October 1. The funeral service will be at 2 p.m. on October 1 at Family Funeral Care. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in his name to the Alzheimer's Association or to a charity of the donor's choice.

Notes for Gene Burrus:

From an article in the Dana Point Times (March 15, 2012) Article written by Andrea Swayne.

Gene Burrus' presence at Dana Point Youth Baseball opening day ceremonies on March 10 was requested under false pretenses; but that's just fine with him.

Burrus, the league's play-by-play announcer, was asked to do the honor of throwing out the first pitch of the season.

"He really wanted to get to the field early," said his wife Gladys Burrus who had a hand in keeping other parts of the morning ceremonies a secret. "I had to insist that we get there at 8:30 a.m., when Kevin Evans the Recreation Department director asked us to be there."

The secret that city and league officials were about to surprise Burrus with was the renaming of Mustang Field (the front baseball field at the Dana Point Community Center on Del Obispo) to the Gene Burrus Ballfield. The morning would also include the unveiling of a new monument to commemorate the occasion.

John Donello, the league president, began with a speech welcoming the crowd to the opening day of the spring 2012 season and thanking the city and its officials for their support of the volunteer run league that caters to more than 450 youths representing over 300 Dana Point families.

Dew was still glistening on the right field grass as dozens of young players in brand new, brightly colored uniforms gathered with the rest of the audience as Donello began.

"I give many talks and many speeches and I never use notes, but I find the experience of speaking in front of such a great speaker as Gene Burrus to be especially intimidating; so I'm going to have to use some notes," he said as the crowd chuckled with approval.

"Our goals are, first, to create a community environment in which all of our youths can form lifelong friendships and learn lifelong lessons. Second, to show by example, the importance of community service. And third, and most obviously, to teach top notch competitive baseball skills. But no matter how hard any of us try, no one here is able to create a more memorable and meaningful experience for our youths than Gene Burrus," said Donello. "Gene has become an icon within our league and his classy, silky smooth announcing makes each of his games a World Series-class experience for our youths."

Donello continued saying that with regard to lifelong lessons, Burrus, in his time spent on the microphone, always manages to frame things in a way that teaches the players grace and class.

"He teaches the kids how to accept a disappointing strike out, a great hit, a horrible error or a game-winning catch," said Donello. "Gene is an important force within our league and the best evidence is the simple fact that all of our players treat him with respect that none of us parents ever see."

Again the crowd chuckled.

Burrus was previously recognized by the league with the creation of a special fund named in his honor that enables Dana Point youths in financial need to participate, Donello said. "But we still feel indebted and would like to present him with this special gift.

Rene Cortez, the leagues director of communications for 30 years, lifted a brown paper cover to reveal a painting on an easel of Burrus in action announcing a game.

The microphone was then handed over to Mayor Lara Anderson who alluded to there being more to the surprise.

"What would be a great enough honor and tribute to this man who has enriched all of our lives and made such a big difference in Dana Point? Well, we thought of something, and we're making a little change," said Anderson as she directed the crowd's attention to the scoreboard high above center field where volunteers pulled on ropes attached to a tarp covering it. As the tarp fell, cheers and applause rang out and Anderson announced the renaming of Mustang Field and officially dedicated it the Gene Burrus Ballfield.

"I didn't expect all this today. What an honor," said Burrus. "The city of Dana Point has been so kind to me, and I'd like to salute our players and their parents. I love the moms and the dads and the grandparents who are behind our players and attend as many games as they can. This is beautiful and an example to parents all over the world and I thank you."

Anderson then directed the crowd outside of the field fencing for the unveiling of a monument erected in Burrus' honor.

THE MONUMENT

The Dana Point Parks and Recreation Department commissioned Michael Comi owner of Pacific Rockscape in San Juan Capistrano-the company responsible for creating the Vietnam Veterans Memorial at Sea Terrace Park along with many other rockscape signs in the city-to design and build a monument to commemorate the renaming of the field.

Given a tight schedule of just 22 days to complete the project, Comi assembled a talented team of artisans for the job including Jerry Lansky, owner of JL Welding in Capo Beach, Eddie Hygh who helped with the design, Pete Corba who assisted with fabrication and airbrush artist Kristie Crisler.

The design includes a metal plaque with Burrus' picture and information mounted to a cement base. The base is framed on either side by two large baseball bats between which sits a very realistic looking baseball adorned with Burrus' autograph.

"It was important that the baseball look real," said Comi explaining that the accurate look of the ball came largely thanks to Lansky's welding of each of the steel threads individually and further enhanced by the realistic painting of Crisler.

Hundreds of hours of work, approximately 350 pounds of steel in the ball and a total of five yards of cement went into the project, said Comi.

For Lansky, the unveiling of the project at DPYB opening day brought back fond memories of his days playing baseball as a kid. "I am very proud to have been a part of this. Go team!" Lansky said.

THE VOICE

Burrus, 84, had a broadcasting career that spanned more than five decades and included being known as "the voice of Armed Forces Radio" and serving as the public address announcer at the Tournament of Roses Parade in the 10 years leading up to his retirement.

He started in radio in 1952 at station KRUX in Glendale, Ariz. In 1958, he moved to television there and then in 1964 returned to California where, after World War II he studied broadcasting at the Radio Engineering School in Burbank and worked at several stations in cities like Palm Springs, Los Angeles and Newport Beach until retiring in 1986.

Upon retiring, he and his wife moved to Dana Point where he quickly became an integral part of the community by volunteering for many city programs and events.

Burrus is known locally, not only for announcing youth baseball, but also as the master of ceremonies for events at the Senior Center and the Festival of Whales Parade announcer. He was also Ambassador of the Year and officially named "the Voice of Dana Point" in 2006.

PLAY BALL

The morning festivities were set to end with Burrus throwing out the first pitch of the season, but the crowd had other plans.

Even as the first game of the season got underway on the Gene Burrus Ballfield diamond, young players-some sneaking out of the dugout for a moment-their parents, friends, city leaders and staff continued to approach Burrus for more than an hour offering congratulations, taking photos and asking for his autograph.

"I am absolutely surprised and overwhelmed," said Burrus in his trademark announcing voice that needs no assistance from a microphone. "I never expected anything like this. It is quite an honor. Thank you."

After attaining his pilot's license, he owned five planes over the course of his life and continued his interest many years later.

James W. "Butch" Miller Sr.(1949 - 2014)
"Butch"

James W. Miller, Sr.

AGE: 64 • Townsend

"Butch", James W. Miller, Sr., 64 of Townsend, passed away surrounded by his wife and sons on Monday, May 19, 2014.

Butch was born on August 6, 1949 in Indiana, Pennsylvania, son of the late James A., born in Bolivar, Pennsylvania, and Della (Halloran) Miller, born in County Mayo, Ireland. He was recently predeceased by "Aunt Ruth" B. Skelley, who lived with him and his wife, Grace, for nearly forty years.

Together with his wife and son, John, Butch founded J. W. Miller Welding & Boiler Repair Company, Inc. in 1996. A welder and boilermaker by trade, he previously worked at Potts Welding in New Castle, Delaware for thirty years. Butch served his country honorably in the United States Army.

Butch was known for the pride he took in his work and would not have his name associated with a job unless that job was done right. He enjoyed building things, especially out of metal. A generous man, Butch would often make repairs for others in need, especially those older than he, without accepting something in return. He rebuilt cars and trucks, skills he learned working in his father's auto garage and gas station while a teenager. His truck was always clean, inside and out, and the mower lines on his lawn were always straight.

Butch is survived by his wife of nearly forty-six years, Grace (Walther); his sons of whom he was very proud, Jim of Manhattan, New York City, and John and his wife, Liz of Townsend; his beloved granddaughter, Maura Ellen, whom he affectionately called "Boo"; his favorite dog, Sandy; his sister, Kathleen Blair of Wilmington; his brother, Thomas Miller of Townsend; and his many nieces and nephews. Butch will be dearly missed by his cousins with whom he grew close after discovering a love for traveling throughout Ireland, England and Scotland.

Butch's family would like to acknowledge the nurses, doctors and staff at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, Christiana Hospital and the Wilmington Hospital Center for Rehabilitation for the skill, care and thoughtfulness they provided during his illness.

Family and friends are invited to visit at the Doherty Funeral Home, 3200 Limestone Road, Pike Creek on Thursday, May 29 from 5:00-7:00PM. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. John the Beloved Church, 907 Milltown Road, Wilmington on Friday, May 30 at 9:30AM. Interment will follow in All Saints Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Wilmington Hospital Center for Rehabilitation, 501 E. 14th Street, Wilmington, DE 19801.

Notes for JoEllen Nedimyer:

Mary Ellen Nedimyer tells us this history (1994). My brother Kenneth died from Scarlet Fever a week before my mother died of the same illness. My sister Dorajeane had it so severely that she got encephalitis. Jack was unconscious for 25 days and went into meningitis. Both children were in a coma. Jack had a hearing problem from then on. After my mother died and the quarantine was taken from the door, my 16 year old aunt MADALYN, my mother's sister, and Dorajeane, Lois, Jack and I were taken to my mother's father's home. This was not a good arrangement because my mother's mother had died and my grandfather had remarried. His wife did not want any of us there. My grandfather took me to live with a childless family in Altoona, PA, and they took care of me from 1934 till 1938 when my father discerned that his wife did not want the responsibility of 4 children to raise, so my father gave permission that LOIS be adopted by the MURSH family in Pittsburgh, PA, and I be adopted by the LUKE family in Altoona, PA.

Notes for Paul Watts Allred:

Note written in Birthday card to son Paul Watts Allred Dated Sept. 9, 1995.

Happy Birthday Paul Watts Allred - your mother took H.E. and Robert to Kanosh, Utah in July 1935 so we could save enough money so we could go to the Logan Temple in September. I paid a man $10.00 to ride with him from San Francisco, CA to Salt Lake City, UT. Your mother rode the bus with your brothers to S.L.C. We stayed over night with my Father. Your Mother's uncle Harry Bowen took us to Logan the next day. That saved us some money. We stayed over night in a Hotel, the next morning we ate our breakfast, then we walked up to the Temple. We had to walk across a little stream of water on a little bridge. Your mother said the clear water looked so good. We had our endowments, sealings and had our marriage solemnized at the altar for all eternity. We took a train ride back to Oakland, CA and got a ferry boat and crossed the bay, then rode #21 Street Car to our apartment. When we came in our apt. we had enough money to buy a quart of milk and a nickel to ride the street car back to my work. The best birthday gift your mother and I could ever give you and your brothers and sister, is that you last 4 were born under the Covenants we made September 4, 1935 at the Logan Temple.

Your father with Love,

Notes for Robert William Overman Jr.:

Robert William Overman, known as "Bob," was born May 20, 1946, and passed away September 21, 2015. He was a native of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, born to Robert W. Overman, Sr. and Ruby E. Overman. He was proud of his father who was a steelworker, and the perception capabilities of his mother. He is survived by his son, Tracy D. Overman; his sister, Zoe Overman Salem, and nephews and niece, Kerry Salem, Kody Salem, Kory Salem and Kammy Schreiner. Bob was educated in secondary schools in Pennsylvania and Canada. He obtained his bachelor's degree from the University of Tennessee and received his doctorate in Psychology from the University of Tennessee. He was a part of the criminal justice program of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department and joined Guardsmark, Inc. in September 1978. He had a meteoric rise at Guardsmark, eventually becoming Vice President of Human Resources and was involved in the growth of the company from $25 million in annual revenues to $563 million. He was responsible for the overall selection of employees that numbered 18,000. He was the foremost expert in psychological testing in the private security industry. He was involved in literally hundreds of thousands of transactions involving people in 50 states, Puerto Rico, Canada and the United Kingdom. He played a very critical role in the history of the development of Guardsmark because of his singular focus on trying to recruit the best people and enhance their lives through better performance, evaluating their strengths and weaknesses throughout his tenure. He was known by those in the highest ranking positions of the FBI, the Secret Service and CIA. He was able to show them things that were in place in the Guardsmark program of which he was proud, and they listened and were impressed. His progression of professional contacts included many governors and senators. Bob loved Guardsmark greatly and had a number of other interests, but his hometown roots kept him a loyal and devoted Pittsburgh Steelers' football fan. And he was loyal to his alma mater, the University of Tennessee. His keen insights into people put him in the position of promoting thousands during his career. He changed lives for those who worked within the company. Having spent 37 years at Guardsmark, he is mourned by thousands whose lives he touched. Ira A. Lipman, Founder of Guardsmark, stated, "Bob Overman was one of the greatest executives and people that I have ever worked with in my business career. He was hardworking, loyal, dedicated and committed to the success of Guardsmark and the success of all who were part of the Guardsmark team. He was focused on perfection and reached excellence in his career with the company. I will never forget him." He was a great admirer of the late Rev. Adrian Rogers, and accompanied him on an overseas trip. Over the years he regularly attended services at Bellevue Baptist Church and at Highpoint Church in Memphis, Tennessee. A gathering of family and friends will be held on Wednesday, September 30 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Family Funeral Care, 4925 Summer Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee, 38122. The family will also receive friends from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. on Thursday, October 1. The funeral service will be at 2 p.m. on October 1 at Family Funeral Care. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in his name to the Alzheimer's Association or to a charity of the donor's choice.

Jim was a retired police officer, having started his career in the records office at the Wayne County Sheriff's Department in 1976. He was hired as a patrolman with the Sodus Point Police Department in 1978. Jim continued his career with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department for the next 16 years before transferring to the Palmyra Police Department in 1996. Shortly after his transfer he was promoted to the rank of Sergeant which he held until his retirement.

Over his career as a police officer, he was a DARE Officer, Juvenile Officer, Field Training Instructor, Basic Training Instructor for the Finger Lakes Law Enforcement Academy, and numerous other certifications. Jim retired in 2014, having completed 39 and a half years in law enforcement.

Throughout his life, Jim served his community in many ways. In 1974, Jim achieved the Eagle Scout award, the highest rank in scouting. Jim was a friend to all who knew him. He cherished his family and friends, was a quick wit and able to give reasonably good advice to all who sought his wisdom. He loved history and was the master of useless trivia. He will be sorely missed.
