Notes for John Kuhns Mikesell:

JOHN KUHNS MIKESELL, who owns a beautiful 200-acre farm in Blacklick township, Indiana county, belongs to a family which has been settled in these parts for several generations. The Mikesells are of German descent, John Mikesell, the founder of the branch in Indiana county, having been a native of Germany. He spent his early life there, coming to America when a young man, in the early part of the last century, and first settling in Bedford county, Pa. Thence he came to Indiana county, making his home in Center township, on the Ridge near the line of what is now Burrell township. He became the owner of 300 acres in what was then an unsettled region, erected a small log dwelling and set to work to clear his land for cultivation. The rest of his life was spent at that place, farming, and he made many improvements on the property, building a stone residence and substantial barn, and in various other ways adding to its appearance and value. He married Margaret Altimus, and they became the parents of six children: Adam, who settled in Center township; Elizabeth, who married Peter Bowman; Peter, who settled in West Wheatfield township; Joseph, who died in Michigan; John, who died in Iowa; and Jonas. Mr. and Mrs. Mikesell died on the farm and are buried there. They were members of the Lutheran Church, which he served as elder, and in politics he was an adherent of the Democratic party.

Jonas Mikesell, son of John, was born March 7, 1804, on the Ridge farm in Center township, and there received such educational advantages as the subscription schools afforded. However, he became a well informed man in spite of his lack of early opportunities, and was well read in both German and English. Working at home until he reached manhood, he then removed to Clarion county, locating near Salem, on a farm owned by his father-in-law, Christopher Rugh. It was a tract of 123 acres, and he carried on its cultivation for some time, eventually selling out and returning to Indiana county. Settling at his parents' old home on the Ridge in Center township he cared for his widowed mother in her declining years and operated that place, which comprised 180 acres of fine land. He lived there the remainder of his life, improving the farm greatly. He died Jan. 16, 1854, and was laid to rest in the family burying lot on the farm. He married in Center township, Catherine Rugh, who was born at Rugh Station, in what is now Burrell township, daughter of Christopher and Elizabeth (Best) Rugh, and died at the old homestead. She is buried in the cemetery of the Lutheran Chapel at Coral. Mr. and Mrs. Mikesell were members of the Lutheran Church, and he was quite active in church work. Politically he was a Democrat. They were the parents of ten children: Julia Ann, who died unmarried in 1909; John Kuhns; Solomon, who died from the effects of wounds received while serving in the Civil war; Abraham, who died in Altoona, Pa.; Christopher, also deceased; Jonas, Jr., deceased; Augustus, who died in boyhood; Isaac, deceased; Jacob, twin of Isaac, who died in infancy; and Philip, who resides in Illinois.

John Kuhns Mikesell was born March 4, 1833, near Salem, in Clarion county, Pa., and was but two years old when his parents returned to Indiana county. He attended school in Center township, and acquired his knowledge of farming under his father's tuition, working with him upon the home place until he died and subsequently cultivating that tract on his own account for a number of years, until the land and coal were sold, in 1890, to the Graceton Coal & Coke Company. He then moved to Blacklick township, buying the Alexander Gordon farm, a tract of 224 acres which he has since occupied. He follows general farming and stock raising. Mr. Mikesell considers no detail of his work too trivial for attention, and his home and surroundings show his taste and thrift. He has erected buildings and made other notable improvements on the property during his ownership, and few farmers have their work on a more systematic and orderly basis.

Mr. Mikesell was married in Center township June 2, 1870, to Keraenhappuch (Carry) Coy, a native of Pine township, this county, daughter of Lewis and Margaret (Sleppey) Coy, and they have had a family of five children, namely: Augustus Babb, who resides on the homestead, working for his father, and at present acting as a director on the school board of Blacklick township, being secretary of that body; Laura May, who married Edward Berkley and lives in Middletown, Ohio; Ira B., now living at Steubenville, Ohio; Christopher, who died on the farm; and Mary, unmarried, who lives at home.

Mr. Mikesell is a member of the Lutheran Church at Coral, which he helped to organize, and he is at present serving as elder and superintendent of the Sunday school, being one of the most efficient workers of that congregation. In politics he was originally a Democrat, but now supports the Republican party.

The Coy family, to which Mrs. Mikesell belongs, is also of old settled Center township stock. John Coy, the founder of the family in Indiana county, came hither from Bedford county, Pa., settling in Brushvalley township in 1820 and later moving to Pine township, where he passed the remainder of his life. He married Sarah Bowers, and they had a large family, viz.: Lewis; Franey; John B., who married Margaret Empfield; Adam, who married Rachel Lyda; Sarah, who married George Empfield; Peter, who married Mary Stevens; Nancy, who married Samuel Stall; Elizabeth, who married William Fowler; and David, who married a Miss Dick.

Lewis Coy, son of John and Sarah (Bowers) Coy, was born in 1812 in Bedford county, Pa., and was a boy when he came with his parents to what was then known as Brushvalley township, Indiana county. Later he moved with the family to Pine township, where he spent the remainder of his life engaged in farming, dying in July, 1896. In 1834 he married Margaret Sleppey, who was born in 1810, daughter of Abraham and Ann Sleppey, and they had a family of nine children, three sons and six daughters, one of the latter being the wife of John Kuhns Mikesell.

14. John Kuhns⁶ Mikesell (Jonas⁵, Margaretha Elisabeth⁴ Altemus, Nicholas³ Altemus, Johann Peter² Althumuß, Johann Wilhelm¹ Altomus)⁴⁷ was born on Mar 04, 1833 in Salem, Clarion County, Pennsylvania. He married Keraenhappuch Coy, daughter of Lewis Coy and Margaret Sleppey, on Jun 02, 1870 in Center Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.⁴⁷

JOHN KUHNS MIKESELL, who owns a beautiful 200-acre farm in Blacklick township, Indiana county, belongs to a family which has been settled in these parts for several generations. The Mikesells are of German descent, John Mikesell, the founder of the branch in Indiana county, having been a native of Germany. He spent his early life there, coming to America when a young man, in the early part of the last century, and first settling in Bedford county, Pa. Thence he came to Indiana county, making his home in Center township, on the Ridge near the line of what is now Burrell township. He became the owner of 300 acres in what was then an unsettled region, erected a small log dwelling and set to work to clear his land for cultivation. The rest of his life was spent at that place, farming, and he made many improvements on the property, building a stone residence and substantial barn, and in various other ways adding to its appearance and value. He married Margaret Altimus, and they became the parents of six children: Adam, who settled in Center township; Elizabeth, who married Peter Bowman; Peter, who settled in West Wheatfield township; Joseph, who died in Michigan; John, who died in Iowa; and Jonas. Mr. and Mrs. Mikesell died on the farm and are buried there. They were members of the Lutheran Church, which he served as elder, and in politics he was an adherent of the Democratic party.

Jonas Mikesell, son of John, was born March 7, 1804, on the Ridge farm in Center township, and there received such educational advantages as the subscription schools afforded. However, he became a well informed man in spite of his lack of early opportunities, and was well read in both German and English. Working at home until he reached manhood, he then removed to Clarion county, locating near Salem, on a farm owned by his father-in-law, Christopher Rugh. It was a tract of 123 acres, and he carried on its cultivation for some time, eventually selling out and returning to Indiana county. Settling at his parents' old home on the Ridge in Center township he cared for his widowed mother in her declining years and operated that place, which comprised 180 acres of fine land. He lived there the remainder of his life, improving the farm greatly. He died Jan. 16, 1854, and was laid to rest in the family burying lot on the farm. He married in Center township, Catherine Rugh, who was born at Rugh Station, in what is now Burrell township, daughter of Christopher and Elizabeth (Best) Rugh, and died at the old homestead. She is buried in the cemetery of the Lutheran Chapel at Coral. Mr. and Mrs. Mikesell were members of the Lutheran Church, and he was quite active in church work. Politically he was a Democrat. They were the parents of ten children: Julia Ann, who died unmarried in 1909; John Kuhns; Solomon, who died from the effects of wounds received while serving in the Civil war; Abraham, who died in Altoona, Pa.; Christopher, also deceased; Jonas, Jr., deceased; Augustus, who died in boyhood; Isaac, deceased; Jacob, twin of Isaac, who died in infancy; and Philip, who resides in Illinois.

John Kuhns Mikesell was born March 4, 1833, near Salem, in Clarion county, Pa., and was but two years old when his parents returned to Indiana county. He attended school in Center township, and acquired his knowledge of farming under his father's tuition, working with him upon the home place until he died and subsequently cultivating that tract on his own account for a number of years, until the land and coal were sold, in 1890, to the Graceton Coal & Coke Company. He then moved to Blacklick township, buying the Alexander Gordon farm, a tract of 224 acres which he has since occupied. He follows general farming and stock raising. Mr. Mikesell considers no detail of his work too trivial for attention, and his home and surroundings show his taste and thrift. He has erected buildings and made other notable improvements on the property during his ownership, and few farmers have their work on a more systematic and orderly basis.

Mr. Mikesell was married in Center township June 2, 1870, to Keraenhappuch (Carry) Coy, a native of Pine township, this county, daughter of Lewis and Margaret (Sleppey) Coy, and they have had a family of five children, namely: Augustus Babb, who resides on the homestead, working for his father, and at present acting as a director on the school board of Blacklick township, being secretary of that body; Laura May, who married Edward Berkley and lives in Middletown, Ohio; Ira B., now living at Steubenville, Ohio; Christopher, who died on the farm; and Mary, unmarried, who lives at home.

Mr. Mikesell is a member of the Lutheran Church at Coral, which he helped to organize, and he is at present serving as elder and superintendent of the Sunday school, being one of the most efficient workers of that congregation. In politics he was originally a Democrat, but now supports the Republican party.

The Coy family, to which Mrs. Mikesell belongs, is also of old settled Center township stock. John Coy, the founder of the family in Indiana county, came hither from Bedford county, Pa., settling in Brushvalley township in 1820 and later moving to Pine township, where he passed the remainder of his life. He married Sarah Bowers, and they had a large family, viz.: Lewis; Franey; John B., who married Margaret Empfield; Adam, who married Rachel Lyda; Sarah, who married George Empfield; Peter, who married Mary Stevens; Nancy, who married Samuel Stall; Elizabeth, who married William Fowler; and David, who married a Miss Dick.

Lewis Coy, son of John and Sarah (Bowers) Coy, was born in 1812 in Bedford county, Pa., and was a boy when he came with his parents to what was then known as Brushvalley township, Indiana county. Later he moved with the family to Pine township, where he spent the remainder of his life engaged in farming, dying in July, 1896. In 1834 he married Margaret Sleppey, who was born in 1810, daughter of Abraham and Ann Sleppey, and they had a family of nine children, three sons and six daughters, one of the latter being the wife of John Kuhns Mikesell.

NICHOLAS DANIEL ALTIMUS is living on his father's old farm in Buffington town ship, Indiana county, where he was born Dec. 27, 1860, son of David and Susan (Dick) Altimus.

The Altimus family, particularly well known in Brushvalley township, is one of the oldest and most respected in this portion of Indiana county. The first of the name in Brushvalley was Adam Altimus (Altemus, as the name is also spelled), who was of Holland (Dutch) extraction and a native of Northampton county, Pa. Coming to Indiana county about 1798 he located in Center township, near the line of what is now Brushvalley township, on what is now known as the Robert McPhetris farm, and here he settled down to farming, having a tract of 200 acres, which he improved very materially. He built a fine brick dwelling house on the farm, the first of its kind in that section, the brick being made on his place. He spent his active life on the farm, and when he retired from active labor moved to Mechanicsburg, where he owned a home and spent the remainder of his life, dying there in September, 1863; he was buried in the Lutheran Church cemetery. He was blind some years before his death. Mr. Altimus was a member of the Lutheran Church, was a Whig and Re publican in politics, and was known to all as a man who did his duty faithfully in his walk of life. He married Evaline (Eve) Shaffer, a native also of Northampton county, and she is buried in the Lutheran Church cemetery near Graceton, in Center township. Children as follows were born to this pioneer couple: Nicholas; Margaret, who married Peter Steffy; Daniel, who married Elizabeth Hendrickson; John, who married Mary A. Drennen; Thomas, who was killed, with the horse he was riding, by a falling tree, while returning from Wake field's mill; William, who married Prudence Peddicord; Susanna, who married Samuel Wolf; and David, who married Sarah Peddicord.

Nicholas Altimus, eldest son of Adam Altimus, was born in 1800 in Center township and there grew to manhood. What education he received was obtained in the subscription schools of the day. He worked at home with his father until of age, when in 1823 lie settled on Brushcreek run, in Brushvalley township, and with his father's help built the first grist and sawmill in Brushvalley township (then a part of Wheatfield township), which he operated. In 1853 the old mill was replaced by the present structure, and operations have been carried on there ever since. In 1848 lie built the frame dwelling house which is now the home of his son William Wolf Altimus. Besides attending to the mill work he farmed a tract of 128 acres near the mill, and was a successful business man, acquiring the owner ship of over five hundred acres before his death; most of it is still in the possession of his sons and grandchildren. On Feb. 23, 1872, while leaving his home to attend a. sale, the horse he was riding slipped on the ice and fell, and Mr. Altimus fell from the horse, his head striking on the hard ground. He died from the effects of his injuries in a few days, and was buried in the Lutheran Church cemetery in Brushvalley township. He was a member of the Lutheran Church and active in its work. In polities he was a stanch Whig and Republican. He was prominent in local affairs, serving as assessor, tax collector and school director of the township, as well as in other public offices.

In 1821 Nicholas Altimus married Mary Wolf, who was born in Brushvalley township in 1802, daughter of John Wolf, and died in that township. She is buried in the cemetery of the Lutheran Church, of which she was a member. Fourteen children were horn to this marriage: Martha H. married Alexander Noble, and both are deceased; Margaret married Frank Hurlinger and both are deceased; Adam married Catharine Conrad; Elizabeth married C. R. Weaver and died in Brush- valley; Susanna died in young womanhood; David, born April 19, 1831, married Susan Dick, and resided in Buffington township, this county; James, born Dec. 27, 1832, married Mary E. Dorney, and died in Buffington town ship; Evaline married Robert Pringle; Sarah married Amos Knabb and both are deceased; Mary married George Paul; Charlotte married John Shaffer; William Wolf and Mathias S. are residents of Brushvalley township and fully mentioned elsewhere; John A. died when four and a half years old.

David Altimus was born April 19, 1831, in Brushvalley township, there attending subscription school. Later he bought part of his father's farm, a tract of 100 acres located in what is now Buffington (then a part of Brush- valley) township, to which he afterward added 500 acres, and he engaged in the clearing and cultivation of this place with great success, becoming a prosperous general farmer. He also raised a large amount of stock, and ran a sawmill located on Blacklick creek, near the old red mill, he and his brother James building and operating this mill in partnership. Mr. Altimus built a large and substantial house and barn on his farm. He was one of the prominent men of the locality in his day, serving many years as township assessor and auditor, was a Republican in political connection, and a member of the Lutheran Church. He died April 16, 1887.

Mr. Altimus married Susan Dick, who was born May 19, 1834, in Brushvalley township, daughter of Daniel and Susan (Lightner) Dick, and she survives him, now residing with her son Nicholas. Nine children were born to this union, as follows: Sarah C. married James T. Duncan, now a retired farmer, of Sioux City, Iowa; Robert Thomas married; Nicholas Daniel is mentioned below; William Harry, born July 14, 1863, died in December, 1908, and is buried at Strongstown, this county, where he had served as postmaster (he married Jennie Gillespie); Lorenzo Dick, unmarried, lives at Sioux City, Iowa; Katie Belle married Charter Meeks and lives in Sioux City, Iowa; Mary Susan married Edward Burns, who is a farmer and merchant at Ebensburg, Pa.; John died young; David Hays, unmarried, lives with his mother.

Nicholas Daniel Altimus attended common school in Buffington township. He has passed all his life there except one year, when he was in Sioux City, Iowa, upon his return from the West purchasing the home place from the other heirs. He owns and operates 240 acres, and has followed farming and lumbering. He sold the old sawmill built by his father. Mr. Altimus has set out a large number of fruit trees, built a commodious barn, and made numerous other improvements upon the property during his ownership, and the fine condition of the place is sufficient evidence of his progressive and enterprising nature. He is interested in all local affairs, and has held township office, having served three years as school director and three years as auditor. In politics he is a Republican. He is a prominent member of the M. E. Church at Strongstown, of which he has been trustee and steward for the last three years.

On Aug. 26, 1886, Mr. Altimus married Annie H. Duncan, daughter of John W. and Harlan (Griffith) Duncan, and they have had five children: Ora Belle; Maude Delle, who has taught school in Buffington township for the last five years; Susan May, who has taught four terms of school; Hugh Mack; and Russell John.

This is an excerpt from the book, 'INDIANA COUNTY PENNSYLVANIA, HER PEOPLE, PAST AND PRESENT' by JOSHUA T. STEWART, published in 1913.

NICHOLAS DANIEL ALTIMUS is living on his father's old farm in Buffington town ship, Indiana county, where he was born Dec. 27, 1860, son of David and Susan (Dick) Altimus.

The Altimus family, particularly well known in Brushvalley township, is one of the oldest and most respected in this portion of Indiana county. The first of the name in Brushvalley was Adam Altimus (Altemus, as the name is also spelled), who was of Holland (Dutch) extraction and a native of Northampton county, Pa. Coming to Indiana county about 1798 he located in Center township, near the line of what is now Brushvalley township, on what is now known as the Robert McPhetris farm, and here he settled down to farming, having a tract of 200 acres, which he improved very materially. He built a fine brick dwelling house on the farm, the first of its kind in that section, the brick being made on his place. He spent his active life on the farm, and when he retired from active labor moved to Mechanicsburg, where he owned a home and spent the remainder of his life, dying there in September, 1863; he was buried in the Lutheran Church cemetery. He was blind some years before his death. Mr. Altimus was a member of the Lutheran Church, was a Whig and Re publican in politics, and was known to all as a man who did his duty faithfully in his walk of life. He married Evaline (Eve) Shaffer, a native also of Northampton county, and she is buried in the Lutheran Church cemetery near Graceton, in Center township. Children as follows were born to this pioneer couple: Nicholas; Margaret, who married Peter Steffy; Daniel, who married Elizabeth Hendrickson; John, who married Mary A. Drennen; Thomas, who was killed, with the horse he was riding, by a falling tree, while returning from Wake field's mill; William, who married Prudence Peddicord; Susanna, who married Samuel Wolf; and David, who married Sarah Peddicord.

Nicholas Altimus, eldest son of Adam Altimus, was born in 1800 in Center township and there grew to manhood. What education he received was obtained in the subscription schools of the day. He worked at home with his father until of age, when in 1823 he settled on Brushcreek run, in Brushvalley township, and with his father's help built the first grist and sawmill in Brushvalley township (then a part of Wheatfield township), which he operated. In 1853 the old mill was replaced by the present structure, and operations have been carried on there ever since. In 1848 he built the frame dwelling house which is now the home of his son William Wolf Altimus. Besides attending to the mill work he farmed a tract of 128 acres near the mill, and was a successful business man, acquiring the ownership of over five hundred acres before his death; most of it is still in the possession of his sons and grandchildren. On Feb. 23, 1872, while leaving his home to attend a sale, the horse he was riding slipped on the ice and fell, and Mr. Altimus fell from the horse, his head striking on the hard ground. He died from the effects of his injuries in a few days, and was buried in the Lutheran Church cemetery in Brushvalley township. He was a member of the Lutheran Church and active in its work. In politics he was a staunch Whig and Republican. He was prominent in local affairs, serving as assessor, tax collector and school director of the township, as well as in other public offices.

In 1821 Nicholas Altimus married Mary Wolf, who was born in Brushvalley township in 1802, daughter of John Wolf, and died in that township. She is buried in the cemetery of the Lutheran Church, of which she was a member. Fourteen children were born to this marriage: Martha H. married Alexander Noble, and both are deceased; Margaret married Frank Hurlinger and both are deceased; Adam married Catharine Conrad; Elizabeth married C. R. Weaver and died in Brushvalley; Susanna died in young womanhood; David, born April 19, 1831, married Susan Dick, and resided in Buffington township, this county; James, born Dec. 27, 1832, married Mary E. Dorney, and died in Buffington township; Evaline married Robert Pringle; Sarah married Amos Knabb and both are deceased; Mary married George Paul; Charlotte married John Shaffer; William Wolf and Mathias S. are residents of Brushvalley township and fully mentioned elsewhere; John A. died when four and a half years old.

David Altimus was born April 19, 1831, in Brushvalley township, there attending subscription school. Later he bought part of his father's farm, a tract of 100 acres located in what is now Buffington (then a part of Brushvalley) township, to which he afterward added 500 acres, and he engaged in the clearing and cultivation of this place with great success, becoming a prosperous general farmer. He also raised a large amount of stock, and ran a sawmill located on Blacklick creek, near the old red mill, he and his brother James building and operating this mill in partnership. Mr. Altimus built a large and substantial house and barn on his farm. He was one of the prominent men of the locality in his day, serving many years as township assessor and auditor, was a Republican in political connection, and a member of the Lutheran Church. He died April 16, 1887.

Mr. Altimus married Susan Dick, who was born May 19, 1834, in Brushvalley township, daughter of Daniel and Susan (Lightner) Dick, and she survives him, now residing with her son Nicholas. Nine children were born to this union, as follows: Sarah C. married James T. Duncan, now a retired farmer, of Sioux City, Iowa; Robert Thomas married; Nicholas Daniel is mentioned below; William Harry, born July 14, 1863, died in December, 1908, and is buried at Strongstown, this county, where he had served as postmaster (he married Jennie Gillespie); Lorenzo Dick, unmarried, lives at Sioux City, Iowa; Katie Belle married Charter Meeks and lives in Sioux City, Iowa; Mary Susan married Edward Burns, who is a farmer and merchant at Ebensburg, Pa.; John died young; David Hays, unmarried, lives with his mother.

Nicholas Daniel Altimus attended common school in Buffington township. He has passed all his life there except one year, when he was in Sioux City, Iowa, upon his return from the West purchasing the home place from the other heirs. He owns and operates 240 acres, and has followed farming and lumbering. He sold the old sawmill built by his father. Mr. Altimus has set out a large number of fruit trees, built a commodious barn, and made numerous other improvements upon the property during his ownership, and the fine condition of the place is sufficient evidence of his progressive and enterprising nature. He is interested in all local affairs, and has held township office, having served three years as school director and three years as auditor. In politics he is a Republican. He is a prominent member of the M. E. Church at Strongstown, of which he has been trustee and steward for the last three years.

On Aug. 26, 1886, Mr. Altimus married Annie H. Duncan, daughter of John W. and Harlan (Griffith) Duncan, and they have had five children: Ora Belle; Maude Delle, who has taught school in Buffington township for the last five years; Susan May, who has taught four terms of school; Hugh Mack; and Russell John.

Mary Kathryn Stewart^{558, 736} was born on Jul 03, 1916 in Dilltown, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.¹¹⁹ She died on May 28, 2020 in Brush Valley, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.¹¹⁹ She married Halcy Washington George, son of John Bruce George and Rosetta Overdorff, on Nov 24, 1944 in Washington, Washington County, Pennsylvania.⁷³⁶ He was born on Feb 22, 1908 in Brush Valley Township, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.⁹³⁰ He died on Apr 30, 1997 in Indiana, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.^{119, 362, 559}

Notes for Mary Kathryn Stewart:

Between 1978 and 1982, Kathryn and Halcy were living in Indiana R.D. 4, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Kathryn (Stewart) George, 103, of Brush Valley, passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 28, 2020 at the Communities of Indian Haven.

The daughter of Joshua Harrison and Lucinda Blanche (Tomb) Stewart, she was born on July 3, 1916 in Dilltown, PA.

A resident of Brush Valley Township for many years. She had also resided in West Newton for 25 years.

She was a member of the Dilltown Memorial Baptist Church and a former member of the Brush Valley Grange.

Grandma Kate was an amazingly wise, sassy, proud and independent woman. She lived her life for her family and loved all unconditionally. Family gatherings were hectic but she loved hearing "you started all of this!" Gram push mowed her grass and hand weeded her yard into her 90s. Gram's green thumb could revive all the dead plants we brought to her, but nothing made her smile like Brown-Eyed Susans. Gram spoiled us with homemade Chex Mix, Boston cream pie, pink candies, dumplings, gravy, spaghetti and her famous chocolate chip cookies that the great-grandkids have been trying to replicate to no avail. For the kids who lived on the farm, she watched them get off the bus everyday to make sure they crossed the road safely then welcomed them home with milk, two cookies, and two pink lozenges. Gram could take our beat-up work jeans and patch them so you couldn't tell they'd ever been ripped and she continued to sew her own clothes until late in life. Gram kept a spotless house but never minded when we brought in our pets, random animals, and strays for a visit. Even at 103, Gram remembered details about each of her kids and would ask for updates every time they visited. Everything Gram did turned out perfect, new, refreshed, and delicious - we've all tried to recreate her work but we think that after 103 years she just had an extra touch of love for the family that made everything a little more special. Her shoes will be impossible to fill and those she left behind can only hope to become half the person that she was!

Surviving are her three children - Lucinda Kathryn (Paul) Isenberg of Brush Valley; Donald Lee (Connie) George of Sandy, Utah; and Larry (Chris) George of Pittsburgh. She is also survived by 17 grandchildren, 40 great grandchildren and 14 great great grandchildren. This includes the following local grandchildren - Keith (Donna) Isenberg, Renea Isenberg, Bret (Alisa) Isenberg, Melissa (Jay) Crowley, Stephanie (Steve Shoaf) George and local great grandchildren - Israel (Cassandra) Isenberg, Noelle (Craig) Andrie, Nathan (Carrie) Smith, Brianna (Steve) Bond, Kelsey (Jim Foley) Isenberg, and Jesse (Shyloh Walls) Isenberg.

Also surviving are her sister, Anna Mae Davis, of Indiana and sister-in-law, Miriam Stewart, of Brush Valley. And her two "adopted" grandchildren - Gage Michael Adinolfi and Kami Marshall.

Kathryn was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Halcy W. George on April 30, 1997, brothers - Wayne (Alma), Melvin, Raymond (Betty), Charles (Lila Rae), Clarence (Roene), sisters - Estella (Harry) Sharp, Elda (Frank) Findley, and Ora Louise Stewart, and brother-in-law, Eugene Davis.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Communities at Indian Haven for being Gram's second family the past year and a half and loving her as family does!

Due to the current pandemic, a private service will be held on Monday, June 1st at the gravesite. Bowser-Minich Funeral Home, Indiana, is handling the arrangements with the Rev. Joseph Smith officiating.

Notes for Ralph Miller Stewart:

At 100 years old and with nearly 70 years of auctioneering under his belt, Pete Stewart still hasn't retired, not officially. His last sale was in October when he sold some real estate in Indiana Borough. The only thing stopping him at the moment is - what else? - the pandemic.

Stewart's auctioning career began in 1952 and he estimates that the number of auctions he has presided over number close to 10,000. However, over the years his fondest memories have been working with his family in the business.

"I enjoy the auction world very much," Stewart said.

His granddaughter Erin is now following in his footsteps and has begun auctioneering herself.

The items Stewart has sold are many. But one big ticket item he'll never forget is a Soap Hollow chest of drawers made in Somerset.

"It went for over $12,000," Stewart said. "And after I sold it, I couldn't find anyone who wanted to lift it because they were so afraid of breaking it."

In the end, the chest of drawers situation got figured out as did other items has Stewart sold.

"There were lots of hard items to sell, but we always tried our hardest to get them sold how we could," he said.

Over the years, Stewart - born on July 11, 1920 - has also seen the auction world change drastically.

"Everything used to be done by hand," he said. All of the tallying of prices and the fliers, everything was done by hand. As it progressed, calculators and eventually posting photos over the internet entered the mix.

"The internet has really changed everything," he said. "The auctioning method isn't as popular. Now everything is done on the computer. It's too bad, because auctioneering was the best way to sell things fairly and it employed people. I'm sorry to see it not doing as well as it used to be."

Auctions are always great community events that bring people together, Stewart said.

"I learned how to handle crowds and people by working auctions," he said. "It was a great community thing."

Stewart is having a few celebrations to mark the occasion. There will be a private family party as well as an invitation-only party held Sunday at the Armagh & East Wheatfield Township fire company where Stewart is the last surviving charter member.

Notes for Mary Kathryn Stewart:

Between 1978 and 1982, Kathryn and Halcy were living in Indiana R.D. 4, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Kathryn (Stewart) George, 103, of Brush Valley, passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 28, 2020 at the Communities of Indian Haven.

The daughter of Joshua Harrison and Lucinda Blanche (Tomb) Stewart, she was born on July 3, 1916 in Dilltown, PA.

A resident of Brush Valley Township for many years. She had also resided in West Newton for 25 years.

She was a member of the Dilltown Memorial Baptist Church and a former member of the Brush Valley Grange.

Grandma Kate was an amazingly wise, sassy, proud and independent woman. She lived her life for her family and loved all unconditionally. Family gatherings were hectic but she loved hearing "you started all of this!" Gram push mowed her grass and hand weeded her yard into her 90s. Gram's green thumb could revive all the dead plants we brought to her, but nothing made her smile like Brown-Eyed Susans. Gram spoiled us with homemade Chex Mix, Boston cream pie, pink candies, dumplings, gravy, spaghetti and her famous chocolate chip cookies that the great-grandkids have been trying to replicate to no avail. For the kids who lived on the farm, she watched them get off the bus everyday to make sure they crossed the road safely then welcomed them home with milk, two cookies, and two pink lozenges. Gram could take our beat-up work jeans and patch them so you couldn't tell they'd ever been ripped and she continued to sew her own clothes until late in life. Gram kept a spotless house but never minded when we brought in our pets, random animals, and strays for a visit. Even at 103, Gram remembered details about each of her kids and would ask for updates every time they visited. Everything Gram did turned out perfect, new, refreshed, and delicious - we've all tried to recreate her work but we think that after 103 years she just had an extra touch of love for the family that made everything a little more special. Her shoes will be impossible to fill and those she left behind can only hope to become half the person that she was!

Surviving are her three children - Lucinda Kathryn (Paul) Isenberg of Brush Valley; Donald Lee (Connie) George of Sandy, Utah; and Larry (Chris) George of Pittsburgh. She is also survived by 17 grandchildren, 40 great grandchildren and 14 great great grandchildren. This includes the following local grandchildren - Keith (Donna) Isenberg, Renea Isenberg, Bret (Alisa) Isenberg, Melissa (Jay) Crowley, Stephanie (Steve Shoaf) George and local great grandchildren - Israel (Cassandra) Isenberg, Noelle (Craig) Andrie, Nathan (Carrie) Smith, Brianna (Steve) Bond, Kelsey (Jim Foley) Isenberg, and Jesse (Shyloh Walls) Isenberg.

Also surviving are her sister, Anna Mae Davis, of Indiana and sister-in-law, Miriam Stewart, of Brush Valley. And her two "adopted" grandchildren - Gage Michael Adinolfi and Kami Marshall.

Kathryn was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Halcy W. George on April 30, 1997, brothers - Wayne (Alma), Melvin, Raymond (Betty), Charles (Lila Rae), Clarence (Roene), sisters - Estella (Harry) Sharp, Elda (Frank) Findley, and Ora Louise Stewart, and brother-in-law, Eugene Davis.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Communities at Indian Haven for being Gram's second family the past year and a half and loving her as family does!

Due to the current pandemic, a private service will be held on Monday, June 1st at the gravesite. Bowser-Minich Funeral Home, Indiana, is handling the arrangements with the Rev. Joseph Smith officiating.

Halcy Washington George was buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Indiana, Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for Ralph Miller Stewart:

Indiana Gazette, July 11, 2020

At 100 years old and with nearly 70 years of auctioneering under his belt, Pete Stewart still hasn't retired, not officially. His last sale was in October when he sold some real estate in Indiana Borough. The only thing stopping him at the moment is - what else? - the pandemic.

Stewart's auctioning career began in 1952 and he estimates that the number of auctions he has presided over number close to 10,000. However, over the years his fondest memories have been working with his family in the business.

"I enjoy the auction world very much," Stewart said.

His granddaughter Erin is now following in his footsteps and has begun auctioneering herself.

The items Stewart has sold are many. But one big ticket item he'll never forget is a Soap Hollow chest of drawers made in Somerset.

"It went for over $12,000," Stewart said. "And after I sold it, I couldn't find anyone who wanted to lift it because they were so afraid of breaking it."

In the end, the chest of drawers situation got figured out as did other items has Stewart sold.

"There were lots of hard items to sell, but we always tried our hardest to get them sold how we could," he said.

Over the years, Stewart - born on July 11, 1920 - has also seen the auction world change drastically.

"Everything used to be done by hand," he said. All of the tallying of prices and the fliers, everything was done by hand. As it progressed, calculators and eventually posting photos over the internet entered the mix.

"The internet has really changed everything," he said. "The auctioning method isn't as popular. Now everything is done on the computer. It's too bad, because auctioneering was the best way to sell things fairly and it employed people. I'm sorry to see it not doing as well as it used to be."

Auctions are always great community events that bring people together, Stewart said.

"I learned how to handle crowds and people by working auctions," he said. "It was a great community thing."

Stewart is having a few celebrations to mark the occasion. There will be a private family party as well as an invitation-only party held Sunday at the Armagh & East Wheatfield Township fire company where Stewart is the last surviving charter member.
